FROM THE PRESIDENT

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE ARKANSAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

As the 2nd Quarterly went to press in June, your president was felled by a bout with virus pneumonia, and therefore had no message.

As we go to press this time, all are busy preparing for the Annual Meeting to be held in Hot Springs at the Royal Vista Inn, 2204 Central Avenue, on Sunday October 14. Look for more detailed plans elsewhere in this Quarterly.

There is one change in the Constitution to be voted on at the Annual Meeting:

ARTICLE VI b. (ELECTIONS) reads: "The Society shall elect five members to the nominating committee at the annual meeting. The nominating committee shall then select and report five names for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting. Additional nominations to the Board may be made from the floor."

In our study of the constitution this year, many of the Directors felt that this Article needed clarification. At the June meeting of the Board, the following re-wording of this ARTICLE was recommended for adoption at the Annual Meeting.

"At the Annual Meeting each year, the Society shall elect five members to the nominating committee, to serve for the following year. This nominating committee shall then select and report five names for election to the Board of Directors, at the next Annual meeting. Additional nominations to the Board may be made from the floor."

Our Vice-President and Program Chairman, Mrs. Mario B. Cia, Sr., has worked out a varied program for the Annual Meeting and there should be some interesting reports from our very active committees, which will acquaint everyone with the inner workings of our society.

The Dutch Treat Luncheon before the Meeting will give us time to renew old ties and make new friends.

I am looking forward to seeing each of you in Hot Springs on October 14th.

Cordially,

Willma H. Newton

President

THE HISTORY OF THE CARDEN-SIMPSON LINES
IN STONE COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Sometime before 1860 (probably around 1857) Joseph Simpson, (born 23 February 1826, NC. - died 31 October 1915, Oklahoma,) and his wife Synthia Trollinger, (born 10 February 1827, NC, died 17 September 1890, Arkansas) moved to Arkansas from Manchester Tennessee, where the Simpsons and Cardens had lived in mass for years. They first lived in a town called Ozark where in 1862 their child Doctor Franklin was born. This could have been the early name of Mountain View, or they could have moved again. Anyway Joseph Simpson bought a farm of several hundred acres there. He was a blacksmith and farmer. Grandmother said he gave several acres for the town of Mountain View to be formally laid out. As he was the first in this area, this could be true. The other family in the area was Haileys and they are inter-related in my lines. Here they raised their children and saw them settle nearby. Sometime after 1890 Doctor Franklin one of the children and his wife Isabel moved to Choctaw, Oklahoma. Later still Joseph Simpson and his second wife R. C. Rawlet (married 15 October 1891, died 7 September 1930) moved to Oklahoma and resided with Doctor Franklin Simpson until their deaths. They are buried there while the first wife Synthia(Trollinger) Simpson is believed to have been buried in Tennessee in the family burial grounds.

From the Family Bible comes this information:

From various sources, this information on the CARDEN FAMILY is peiced together.

James CARDEN, born 1747 in England, moved to Virginia. He is known to have later settled in North Carolina and still later and shortly before his death he moved to Manchester Tennessee with his children. He died in 1842 and is buried in Manchester. His wife's name, birth or death date is still unknown. She must have died sometime before the move to Tennessee.

His children were:

Their children:
Mrs. Newton Kemp
Mrs. Clarence Freeze
Mrs. Ed Risner
Dave Hailey
Jeff Hailey
7. S. B. Hailey, born 7-26-1870

In the death colum is also mentioned the name A. Monroe Elliott but the date is too faded to be read. This is probably the A. M. Haley above. Although initials were used, and it is not known for sure, what the names were in order. It is thought that M. M. was Myrtle and M. C. was Mankins.

Rebecca George's parents are beleived to have moved to Mt. View also about 1870, as the 1870 census lists James George, born 1805 in Tennessee and his wife Margaret 1807 in Georgia. Rebecca was born in Tennessee but I have not been able to find a GEORGE FAMILY with a daughter Rebecca. I would love to hear from anyone who might have this information.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Our thanks to Betty Jean Stout, 1922 E. Jackson, Harlingen, Texas 78550.

Much information was received by Betty Jean Stout, from two ladies, (her grandmother - Mrs. Minnie Lee Simpson Carden and her first cousin, - Mrs. Roscoe Harrison.) Both are into their eighties but still bright and with fair memories. She obtained copies of the information from the Haley Bible and the Simpson Bible Family sheets. Then supplemented the information given there by writing many letters. Some information of the early family is available through the Tennessee State Library and Archives. For that information much credit must be given to Mrs. Hermione Embry, now retired.

One of the CARDEN ancestors is mentioned in Goodsped's History of Tennessee--Coffee County. From this information was obtained about the early movements of the family. Then a letter was written to a great great uncle who was about 95 at the time. He gave much information about the original brothers who came from England. He was a grandson of one of them and had heard the family story as a child. He was a gold mine of information.

Please write Betty Jean Stout if you are working on any of these families or if you know of anyone who is working on any of them.

NOTICE: Betty Jean Stout has a four volume set of books containing biographies of Tennessee people (about four thousand) and will be glad to check them for our members, DON'T FORGET TO SEND A SELF ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE! & full names & general date at least.

STRICKLAND FAMILY OF POPE COUNTY, ARKANSAS
by Margaret Cowart

Frederick Strickland, the progenitor of the early Stricklands of Pope County, Arkansas was born 1736/41 in Hillsboro, Wake County, North Carolina and died November 1, 1825 in Lawrence County, Tennessee. He married Mary Gibson, who was about the same age. He was in the North Carolina Continental Line in the Revolutionary War and fought at the Battle of Eutaw Springs, South Carolina. He is listed in the 1820 Giles County, Tennessee Census. After that year the boundary line changed and he was in Lawrence County, without moving. His father could have been Frederick Uriah Strickland, found living in Wake Co., in 1725. His children were:

Warren Gibson Strickland, born about 1775, NC, married
Mary D. Anderson
Malachi Strickland
Ruth Strickland
Zachariah Strickland, born about 1770, married Elizabeth
James Strickland,
John Strickland, born probably 1776

Zachariah Strickland is the only child that we have absolute proff showing relationship to Frederick (Rev. War Pension). Some records say Zachariah was born in 1770 in Kentucky (if so, Kentucky is very interested, as there is no record of a white child born there that early, and this must be an error). He died about 1841 in Lawrenceburg, Tenn. His wife, Elizabeth _____, was born about 1780 in South Carolina., and died after 1850 in Pope County, Arkansas. Their children were:

John G. Strickland, born about 1801/3, South Carolina, married Gracy Campbell
Archibald I. Strickland, born about 1804, married Margaret Foster. He remained in Tennessee.
James C. Strickland, born about 1800/10, married Margaret A. Craig.
Samuel S. Strickland, born _____, married Sintha Ann Elizabeth Hamilton Strickland, born January 31, 1805, Ky., married Robert D. Ashmore
Zachariah Mathew Strickland, born about 1811, Ky., married Savle Vick
M. M. Strickland, born about 1810/21, married William Carroll
Warren W. Strickland, born 1818, Tennessee married Sarah _____

Family tradition is that four brothers came from Tennessee to Arkansas from 1825 to 1835. They were John G., James C., Z. Mathew, and Warren W. Strickland. Also a cousin who settled in Faulkner County, Arkansas. They were sons of Zachariah and grandsons of Frederick.

John G. Strickland was in 1840 Pope County, Arkansas Census, married Gracy Campbell and they had:
Lucinda Strickland, born about 1830 in Arkansas, married N. W. Copeland

Susan Strickland, born about 1831/3, Arkansas, married John T. Willson

Williamson Strickland, born about 1834, Arkansas

Malissa Strickland, born about 1842, Arkansas

James C. Strickland was in 1840 Pope County, Arkansas Census as: 1 male 20/30, 1 female under 5, 1 female 30/40. I believe this is the father of my Mary E. Strickland, born about 1837 in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, and married Andrew Mason (Dick) Matthews. In 1850 Mary E. (Strickland Matthews) was living in the James B. Craig home. James C. Strickland married Margaret A. Craig, 29 August 1833, in Lawrence County, Tennessee. Family tradition says Mary E. was orphaned young.

Elizabeth H. Strickland born 31 January 31, 1805 married Robert Doke Ashmore and had:

Mary M. Ashmore

Joshua A. Ashmore

Samuel R. Ashmore

Lucena Ashmore

Cinda A. Ashmore

Cynthia A. Ashmore

Robbin D. Ashmore

(Elizabeth (Strickland) Ashmore's mother Elizabeth Strickland aged 70 lived with her in 1850).

Zachariah Mathew Strickland, born 1811 Kentucky died 1870 Pope County, Arkansas, married Savle Vick, who was born about 1811 South Carolina, and had:

Eliza Jane Strickland

Zachariah Samuel Strickland

Marshall Strickland

Elizabeth Strickland

Warren W. Strickland, born 1818 Tennessee married Sarah and had:

John F. Strickland

Elizabeth Catherine Strickland

Maranda E. Strickland

Lucinda P. Strickland

Stephen Matthews, born about 1805 Tennessee was probably the son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Slaughter) Matthews. He grew up in Lawrence County Tennessee and married Sarah (Sallie) Perkins, who was born about 1805 in Humphrey County, Kentucky (according to her obituary, but there has never been an Humphrey County, Kentucky. There is an Humphrey County, Tennessee, but all censuses say she was born in Kentucky ???) She died June 9, 1882. They were in 1840 Marion County, Arkansas Census and in Pope County, Arkansas by 1842. They had:

Daniel Matthews, born about 1830, married first to Eliza Strickland, Second to Sarah Wilson

Leroy Matthews, born Sept 4, 1830, married Lavena Jane Harrelson, 16 March 1854. Pope County Marriage Record Book B, page 92.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The foregoing pathetic message was furnished the Arkansas Family Historian by Alonzo D. Camp, one of our Arkansas Genealogical Society Board Members.

WILLIAM WHITT of Gadsden, Alabama was Mr. Camp's great-great grandfather. NANCY his great grandmother. The old letter has indeed been preserved, and handed down from generation to generation. WILLIAM WHITT'S prayer has been kept faithfully down through the years. Nancy was indeed taken good care of by her children, but never saw her father again. Mr. Camp has the original, and he will pass it down to the next generation.

MARRIAGE RECORDS (BOOK REVIEW)
VOLUME A
1843 1859
CRITTENDEN COUNTY, ARKANSAS
BY
PAT ISABEL BROWN

This excellent publication of marriage records contains 430 Marriages with Grooms listed in alphabetical order and Bride's index. The age and county of residence is given in most cases as well as the person performing the ceremony and the date of the ceremony.

This material will be of interest to researchers of the Memphis, Tennessee area since many couples came across the Mississippi River which forms the County Line to marry in Arkansas.

Over 12 percent of the total marriages during this period were couples from Shelby County, Tennessee.

This book has the names of the County Clerks who served in Crittenden County during this period (1843-1859).

Certificates of Ordination were filed on Four men and are included at the end of the Marriages.

A list of the Justices of the Peace or other persons who performed marriages is very helpful to the Researcher.

The Author laboriously copied these records from a wonderful but very hard to read Old Hand-written unindexed volume in the office of the Crittenden County Clerk.

All of us owe this Author a debt for making this material available and especially for the index.

The Printed Beckett Antique Cover makes this volume very attractive.

Thank you, Mrs. Brown for this contribution to Arkansas Genealogical Society Library.

Evelyn Brake Mosley
Librarian (retired)

Editor's Note: We thank Mrs. Mosley for this very good book review.

For additional information on this book Mrs. Brown has given to our A.G.S. Library, please write to Mrs. Pat Isabel Brown, 2013 Park Street, SE., Decatur, Ala. 35601. Many thanks to Mrs. Brown for this gift.

Arkansas Genealogical Society

TO ALL GENEALOGICAL, HISTORICAL, & LINEAGE SOCIETIES:

This letter will introduce to you Lowell A. Barker. I am a professional genealogical researcher, specializing in colonial and royal research.

I am currently preparing for publication a book entitled, "A Genealogical History of the American People," This book is scheduled to be published in July of 1976, and will commemorate the 200th anniversary of the United States of America.

I am writing to your organization asking for your support, in the form of genealogical contributions. I am inviting your members to send copies of their lineages for publication in this work. I am interested in receiving any genealogical records that extend into the colonial period or any that might connect with any royal family.

It would be greatly appreciated if your organization would make this offer known in your area. I do have a deadline of December 1973 for material to be submitted.

Thank you for your kind cooperation in this endeavor, I am;

Sincerely yours;

/s/ LOWELL A. BARKER

PLEASANT LINES!

Laugh and the world laughs with you;
Weep and you weep alone.
For the sad old earth must borrow its mirth,
But has trouble enough of its own...American Poet...Ella Wheeler,
(1850-1919)
Penned the familiar words in a poem called "Solitude."

Idleness is the bane of the body and mind,
The nurse of naughtiness,
Step-mother of discipline,
The chief author of all mischief
One of the deadly sins,
The sole cause of this and many other maladies,
The Devil's cushion,
His pillow and chief reposal...Robert Burton

Where do you stop counting your kin? If you are searching for a great-great grandfather your great-great uncle is the same kin to him as your great grandfather and you may find there was someone in his line that showed enough interest in the family to leave a record. The following Query came for this publication:

"Could you help me locate the town of WOODSTOCK, ARK.? My husband's great grandfather had two brothers who went to Ark. around 1870. South Carolina Court records show Thomas Lemaster lived in Woodstock and Robert W. Lemaster lived in Little Rock in 1877. Have found Robert in 1880 census but can not find Thomas." Mrs. Herbert Lindsey, Jr., 139 Seven Oaks Dr., Greenville, S. C. 29605

Robert W. Lemaster had a biography in Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Central Arkansas- Goodspeed Publishing Company - 1890. In this biography he named his father, Wesley, grandfather, Richard, and great-grandfather, George and also gave the name of his mother, Orpha (Lemaster also). He stated the family moved to Georgia in 1853.

The name of the mother was known and proves this is the right Robert W. Lemaster. The names of the father, grandfather, and great-grandfather were not known. To add three generations by the investigation of a great-great Uncle is pretty good.

A check of the 1884 Rand McNally Atlas does not reveal a Woodstock, Arkansas. Since Robert mentioned living in Georgia it seemed logical to check that state--and sure enough-- There is Woodstock, Ga. (Cherokee County and Oglethorpe Co.) also Woodstock Mills, Ga. (Appling County.) So brother Thomas may not have been in Arkansas.

There are many mistakes in these Goodspeed Histories and the above still has to be checked but Mrs. Lindsey is very happy and has new clues to work, but she would still like to contact descendants of Robert and they are possibly still in the Little Rock area.

The Genealogical Assistance Committee will answer all letters enclosing a SASE, and give suggestions on Arkansas material, researchers, etc. They do not offer free research.
