E. RUSS WILLIAMS, JR.

The interest in and study of local and state history by E. Russ Williams, Jr. dates from 1952 when he authored a series of historical interest features for a small-town newspaper, the Daily News, in Bogalusa, Louisiana. These articles contained family legends, war stories, state political involvement, and historic sites in what is today Washington Parish, LA. This activity led eventually to larger projects: a master's thesis, "Development of Public Education in Washington Parish, LA, 1819-1919," and a doctoral dissertation, "The Florida Parish Ellis Family and Their Contributions, Political and Social, Through the Louisiana Bench and Bar, 1820-1918". The latter consisted of a study of this family group, which was prominently involved in the legal profession and in politics in Washington Parish, the Florida Parishes, and the State of Louisiana as a whole during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

In conjunction with local history, Russ Williams became interested in the old families of the Florida Parish region. He concluded that genealogy bore a close relationship to the historic past, and that one could not be fully understood and appreciated without the other. This enterprise led to Mr. Williams's full-length publication on the Warner Family of South Carolina, Louisiana, and Texas entitled Kinsmen All. Additionally, Mr. Williams presented two family-study articles, which were published by the Georgia Genealogical Quarterly. These features traced the migration of several families from Bullock and Liberty Counties, Georgia, to Louisiana. Other articles culminating from his research in the local history of the general area are "Slave Patrol Lists of St. Tammany Parish, LA 1835-1838" and "Bloody Tangipahoa, Examination of a Legend". Two other articles of the same genre which have been accepted for publication are "Eugene F. Bunch, the Louisiana Folktale Bandit", Louisiana History, and "The Black Legislators of East and West Feliciana During Reconciliation", Journal of Negro History.

In 1969, upon the completion of his Ph. D. in history, Russ Williams accepted a teaching position at Northeast Louisiana University. He immediately became interested in the local and family history of Northeast LA, especially that of Ouachita Parish. Delving into the records of the Ouachita Parish courthouse and the extant old newspapers of the region, he discovered an abundance of material heretofore untapped by researchers. He is currently engaged in salvaging, preserving, and presenting in some logical form the important history of the area. His early efforts resulted in the article "John Ray, Forgotten Scalawag."

Having studied the history of the local area for two years, he was approached by the Northeast Louisiana Archeological Society, which asked him to do the historical research on Fort Miro, the old Spanish Fort in the area. (The Society was then digging for the remains of that old structure.) Russ later contributed to the Society's archeological publication a short essay on the historical significance of the Fort. Since the time of his initial involvement (1974 to the present), he has gathered all the extant records related to the Spanish period of the area for an anticipated monograph on that epoch of Northeast Louisiana History. Records have been procured from the Archivo General in Seville, Spain; the Louisiana State Museum Archives; the Louisiana State Archives; the Louisiana State University Archives; and the Archives of Tulane University in New Orleans. In an effort to study the founding French families of the region, research has been conducted in France; Canada; Notre Dame University Archives in Notre Dame, Indiana; St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans; and the Diocese of Baton Rouge Archives. The effort to this point presents prospects for a fascinating monograph.

Upon completion of the current project, Russ anticipates research on a companion monograph of the region under American auspices.

Russ Williams has had and still has a perfect forum for utilizing and presenting the results of his findings. His expertise in local history has led to numerous requests for speeches by patriotic, civic, and religious organizations of the area. His research on the Spanish period in Northeast Louisiana resulted in five appearances on a local television channel; other programs are scheduled for the future. The television presentations were a part of the community's (Monroe) Bicentennial commemoration.

Mr. Williams has worked closely with the Monroe City Planning Department which desires to build a replica of Fort Miro, the old Spanish Fort, as a tourist attraction. This project has been partially funded by the Louisiana State Bicentennial Commission. Grants from this agency have helped finance much of the research into the Spanish period of the local region. Northeast Louisiana University has also contributed to this endeavor through a faculty research stipend. The community has strongly supported local history projects. For example, the Ouachita Council on Aging invited Mr. Williams to present a series of slide-lectures on the local heritage to their group in 1975. The series was so well received that he has been invited to present a six-month series in 1977, which will feature a slide-lecture presentation on Louisiana with a strong emphasis on local history.

The best opportunity for Russ to stress local history is in his University teaching, especially in his course in Louisiana History. He feels that a better appreciation and understanding can be had for state, national, and world history when the student has an appreciable knowledge of local history and local involvement in the total picture. The emphasis on local history helps the student "relate" to the historic past and thereby gain a better understanding of the present. With this idea in view, Russ devotes about 20 percent of his class period to local history.

In conjunction with the University course offerings, the Department of History and Government proposed a course in local history to be offered through the continuing education program. This short-course will emphasize the educational, political, religious, and cultural heritage of the Ouachita Valley from 1782 to the present. If this program is successful, steps will be taken to propose to the University Curriculum Committee a credit course in local history.

There is unlimited research potential for the Ouachita Valley in Northeast Louisiana. The area abounds in local lore and legend and includes materials on every ethnic group in the Southern United States. The Valley's political involvement has been considerable. Six Louisiana governors have come from the region, and conservative, yet democratic, tendencies have led to many changes in the state's political structure. However, little serious study has been devoted to "digging out" the region's local, state, and national connections. This untapped material offers opportunities for graduate students in the University to select thesis topics on the area's historic past. At present, Dr. Williams has six students working on such local history projects.

Dr. Williams believes that the seminar on local history to be offered by the Newberry Library would be greatly beneficial to him. He would be able to present data on what he has thus far done, but, more importantly, he would be able to obtain ideas and suggestions that would assist him in formulating a more meaningful emphasis on local history in his community and University.

NOTES FROM YOUR EDITOR

Our very busy 1977 year is about to end. When you read your September issue, you Editor will almost be finishing the last few pages of the December issue! Many of our members would have a hard time thinking about how far in advance our popular Arkansas Family Historian is prepared. The Query Section has grown in leaps and bounds, and many are reaping wonderful rewards. Our mail is full of the remarkable information our readers are writing about receiving from others who share their same family interests. That is very rewarding, and if you have not tried a Query you may never know how some unknown person may be able to help you with your own problems.

The Surname Index cards come in spasmodically! We are trying to work out some way to share those cards without having to refer to the card file as that takes a great amount of time (which your Editor does not have). Some few have been referred to each other, but when our Volunteer works can work, there seems to be so many other things to be done, we have to by-pass that for the present. But we are working on that at present, just give us a little more time.

This September issue has increased to 1100 copies. That means over 860 members at present have paid their membership for 1977, and several more months, will gain more members.

Please read the inside of the back cover of this and every issue very carefully, as many changes are being made from one quarter to the next. For one - the Grab Bag issues have been so popular, we have almost run out! Only a few issues (and we have a good number of those) are available any more. From time to time however - other copies may become available. All issues have good information, regardless of the date, and our members have learned to value their copies, and ask that they be returned (when they are shared with others). Do not destroy any copies of our Arkansas Family Historian. If you have copies, you no longer need, let us know, as many are trying to get complete sets.

After January 31, 1978 the membership fee will be $7.00 per year. Postage again, has caused this increase. Our Quarterlies are mailed as Controlled Bulk Mail. This means, all the issues are mailed at one time, and have to be pre-sorted into Zip Code order; tied in separate bundles to be sent to the various areas; labeled with the small red, green, and orange round stickers and placed in the correct bags for mailing. This takes much valuable time to prepare 860 different copies (and this is after each copy has been printed, collated and stapled, and stamped with address-plate). All this work is done by a very few volunteer members & friends, as most of our members live all over the United States and can't come over to help.

Our Ancestor Charts are still returning for publication and to this date - already three different Volumes have been published this 1977 year. Volume VIII is gathered and after the September issue is finished and sent, and printing time becomes available, that Volume will be printed. Just the gathering, and printing is only a part - they are indexed and the compiler list is made, then collated, stapled and ready for our members.

December 1967 Re-printed

Those of you, who have needed December 1967 & Index for 1967, will be glad to know, that issue is now available. We re-printed that issue only so our own ARKANSAS GENALOGICAL SOCIETY'S LIBRARY could be complete. We now (soon will have) all our back issues, bound and in order. Most all have indexes, except 1970. That index has never been made, to this date. If you would like December 1967 with separate index - send $2.00 - make check to Arkansas Genealogical Society, Inc., 4200 "A" Street, Little Rock, AR 72205

UNION COUNTY MARRIAGES 1870-1875

Union County, Arkansas Marriages have now been published, and released April 1977, by the Arkansas Genealogical Society, Inc. These were copied several years ago by Mrs. Lillian McGowen and Miss Marie Murphy and contributed to our Society. At that time, neither money nor printing time was available. These copies are $3. each - Make check: Ark. Genealogical Soc. 4200 "A" Street, Little Rock, AR 72205

The GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY of UTAH, 50 East North Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84150 United States of America "is anxious to add to its holdings a copy of every completed family history. Acquiring these histories is difficult since most histories are published as limited editions and are not widely advertised. Since members of the Arkansas Family Historian, publish some of these histories, and has contact with many others who are publishing their histories, we would appreciate assistance. We would like those people to know of our interest in acquiring copies of family histories for our Library. This could be advantageous to those who desire a wider distribution of their histories, because of the many patrons who constantly use the facilities of our library - over 1200 per day. Please correspond directly with me on this matter." L. Richard Carson, Manager Acquisitions Control, The Genealogical Society of Utah, 50 East North Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah 84150

FAMILY GROUP SHEETS

The Arkansas Genealogical Society has had so much success with its ANCESTOR CHART VOLUMES (Vol. VIII is to be released soon) that we have decided to begin collecting FAMILY HISTORY data in a slightly different form, using the Family Group Sheet. This will enable each of our members-non-members as well- to compile and share information on not just one or two individuals, but an entire family. The cut off date is 1920. You will find a Family Group Sheet on the last page of this issue. Fill out one for each of your families. Additional forms will be sent upon request and receipt of a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Type all forms as neatly and as cleanly as possible. A new typewriter ribbon and clean keys will insure this. Send completed forms to: Arkansas Genealogical Society, Inc., 4200 "A" Street, Little Rock, AR 72205

"THAT WAS THE WEEK THAT WAS"

"THE NINETEENTH OF AUGUST" Who could ever forget it? From Polk, Montgomery and Howard Counties, and even from far away Sevier and Scott, they covered on that wonderful town of Mena, Arkansas, to attend the Polk County Fair. They walked, they came in buggies, wagons and on horse back for one Grand Jubilee of the year. I guess there has never been such a Fair as that one. It was the talk of every fireside and the general conversation of every community gathering. They filled Dickson's wagon yard and sometimes Sims' and the overflow reached out on the streets and roads there-about. They fed their mules and horses from the back end of the wagons and they made their beds out of the hay and covered themselves with quilts to keep them warm, for this was right after the "Turn of the Century" and hotel accommodations were an almost unheard of commodity. They brought their grub from the oven back home and drew their water from the spring. They took their little ones to the fair. If the older ones would promise not to have any trouble with those Mena boys, they largely roamed at will and rode the Ferris Wheel or the Flying Jennies as long as the money lasted.

A fifty cent peice was considered a generous amount for the entire length of the Fair.

First of all and the most important of all was the possession of a rubber return ball. With this rubber ball no good looking gal was ever safe on the fair grounds. Those country boys were not much for talking big, but they knew how to take dead aim as a sort of "I LOVE YOU", and the girls somehow seemed to understand the language. It was a sort of jesture of friendship and the girls liked the friendship jesture. Some of the boys who came by Salyer's saloon would fill their rubber balls with buck shot and with two strings tied to the ball it became a weapon of no mean proportions creating many a fracas between the town dudes and the country hicks. Just one good aim and the fight was on in all its fury. If Henry Faulkner from "Down Below the Mountains" happened to be in town, one could be pretty certain that he would be in the middle of the fight, of course on the side of the boys from the sticks. Henry and Millard Vaught were handy helpers for the boys from the "Forks Of The Creeks" and when they had finished with their fists, and if need be their knives, one could be sure the fight was all over.

It was during one of these Fairs that Ike and I tangled with a couple of Mena boys and the rubber balls filled the air round about until we thought we had won the battle, but not for long, for one of they belonged to the Reeves tribe and soon there could be heard a shrill whistle, followed by a similar shrill whistle as the Mena gang came to the rescue. Within a few moments we found ourselves surrounded by about twenty five city boys whose purpose was anything but a friendly jesture. In the meantime we had been joined by Bass Will Whisenhunt from the Shady Community where we coon hunted together. It was four against about twenty five. We sized the situation up and Ike said, "Lets get out of the park for the fight", and so we did, the country boys leading the way followed by the entire gang. At the gate, the Reeves boy ran up in front of Ike and said, "Right here's where you take your medicine", and the fight started. Will Whisenhunt took the measurement of a Mena boy and layed him low on the ground. One of the gang blasted Bass with his fist and broke one of his teeth off, Ike ran over three or four and we headed for Dickson's wagon yard with the Mena boys in hot pursuit. Yes sir-ee that Polk County Fair was a real corker. The New York World's Fair is not in its class, as anyone who ever attended it before 1910 will readily agree. After the Big Show was over we all headed back home to gather the crops and to rehearse the momentous events of the Polk County Fair with its greased pig and greased pole excitement and the monkey that few if any one ever was able to hit with a base ball. That was indeed "THE WEEK THAT WAS".

"BRINGING HOME THE BACON"

Gather around, you mid-century people and I'll tell you a story of farm life in the year 1903 in the southern extremities of the Ozark Mountains. Hog raisin' was a specialty in the farming plans of my Father. His particular breed was known as the "Black Berkshire" and this breed of hogs pretty well comprised the "Money Crop" of the Nichols family. Quite often we would drive a drove of these hogs to market in Mena, Arkansas some fifteen miles distant and sell them to the meat man of the city for what ever price was available at the time, sometimes as low as three cents a pound on foot. One of our finest hogs however was a big Polan China sow weighing about four hundred pounds. This sow was absent at feeding time one evening and knowing that she was heavy with pigs, we were fairly certain that she had selected a hiding place somewhere in the mountain range nearby and she would be subject to the prowling wolves that preyed on live stock in the area. The next morning Ike, my older brother, and I were assigned the task of locating her with her young family and bringing them home before another night would fall and agin subject her to the real dangers of destruction by a band of hungry mountain wolves.

Knowing that an order was an order indeed when issued by our Father. We began the search and throughout the day we roamed the mountains and canyons of the North mountain, knowing this to be her usual feeding range, until about mid-afternoon we located a pile of Huckleberries on the slope of the mountain about half way to the top and upon closer examination, found Big Pole, as we called her, with her family of nine little porkers, nested safely against her breast. Now, Big Pole was a very dangerous beast at pigging time, a fact with which we were very familiar, so the task with which we were confronted was, how in the heck could we get them safely home before night.

The two ears of corn we had taken with us only caused her to demand more defiantly with bristles raised and making warning after warning sound indicating she was ready for battle. After perhaps an hour of trying to outwit Big Pole, we finally agreed on the following scheme. I would engage the old sow on one side of the huckleberry bed while Ike, (being thirteen years of age and three years my senior), would grab a pig and start running towards the house, about one-half mile away. The pig would squeel and the Mother would follow in hot pursuit. This proved to be the swiftest race that a thirteen year old boy ever engaged in. To have fallen would have been the end of his earthly career. To have been out run would have amounted to the same. With long and steady steps he made his way towards the lot gate, that was fortunately open and dropping the pig inside the lot, turned and shut the gate behind the old sow. As Ike and the squeeling pig and grunting sow made their way to the lot gate, I remained behind to pick up the other eight pigs and taking a circling course through the hills until I finally emptied the sack of pigs right by the side of Big Pole and the other crying baby. This was the way we "Brought Home The Bacon", and there is little doubt that we hereby saved the lives of all that porker family from the raves of the prowling wolves of that late November night. Little did we consider the danger of that strategy, but was well pleased with the thought that we had in this fashion rescued our finest family of swine from almost certain death. At any rate we "Brought Home the Bacon", Potential that was.

THIS ENDS THE DESCENDENTS OF WILLIAM EDWARD GRAVES AND NANCY EVALINE (BOYETT) GRAVES, (as known to this compiler), but before we go on to other children of James M. and Elizabeth (Talkington) Graves, I have a few notes that I would like to include:

On Feb 3, 1963 the boyhood home and birthplace of Eddie Graves and many of the other Graves children burned to the ground. This substantially built log house was lived in continuously for 108 years that we know of. It is (or was) located near Abbott in Sebastian Co., Ark., which is about six miles from Mansfield.

According to some "most of the Graves people were blue eyed with black hair."

Eddie was a charter member of the Masonic Lodge in Enterprise, Okla. After Nannie's death (Malaria fever according to family, but her death certificate gives pneumonia as the cause of death.) Nannie died 2 Apr 1918 and is buried at Enterprise, Okla.

Eddie then moved to Post, Garza Co., Texas where C.W. Post (of cereal fame) was offering 160 acres on a 30 year payment. Eddie bought 160 acres there in 1916. There he met and married Eunice Rogers about 1921 or 1922. Eddie and Eunice had two children: Loia and William Edward Graves, Jr.

In 1927 Eddie became ill and for a year suffered from a lot of pain and he died 5 Apr 1928 of cancer of the bladder. He died in Post, Texas.

The fifth child of James M. Graves and Elizabeth (Talkington) Graves was Mary M. Graves b. 26 Mar 1863 in Scott Co., Ark.. She was called "Matt". Matt d. 24 Dec 1899, but we have no further information.

The sixth child was Harriett K. Graves b. 3 Apr 1865 in Polk Co., Ark. She d. as an infant on 16 Aug 1865. (Her middle name was probably King.)

Benjamin Franklin Graves was the next child of James and Elizabeth. He was b. 28 July 1866 in Polk Co., Ark. He md Della McCurdy in 1897 and he d. 28 Dec 1940. Della was b. 30 Jan 1879 in Sebastian Co., Ark. Their children:

THIS CONCLUDES ALL OF THE KNOWN DESCENDENTS OF JAMES M. AND ELIZABETH J.
(TALKINGTON) GRAVES. Before closing this chapter of the Graves History,
I would like to include a few notes.

Jimmie lived with Eddie and Nannie in Enterprise, after Elizabeth died.
Jimmie was tall and slim and was a very kind person.

He served in the Union Army during the Civil War in Co. F. First Arkansas infantry. It was noted earlier in the record that James and Elizabeth were married at Scott Co., Ark., but according to the Graves family Bible they were married in Washington Co., Ark where Elizabeth was born.

The second child of Stephen and Harriett (King) Graves was:

Elizabeth J. Graves. b. 10 Oct 1834 in Monroe Co., Tenn. She married a Mr. Lewis on 17 Oct 1850 and she d. possibly on 7 Nov 1897 (but this is the exact date of her mother's death and may have been an error in copying the Bible record, for Elizabeth, the child, would have been Elizabeth Lewis at the time of her death.) The Lewis children are:

Mary M. Lewis b. 8 Aug 1851 in Scott Co., Ark. (no marriage record.) She
d. in Aug 1939.

William S. Lewis b. 28 Nov 1855 in Scott Co., Ark. (no marriage record.)
He d. 25 Feb 1864 only 9 years old.

Harriett J. Lewis b. 1 Jan 1857 in Scott Co., Ark.

Clarinda C. Lewis b. 28 Dec 1858 in Scott Co., Ark. She died less than a year later on 6 Sept 1859.

John H. Lewis b. 11 Oct 1860 in Scott Co., Ark. He d. 4 Mar 1864.

Mark P. Lewis b. 4 June 1863 and d. on Christmas Day 25 Dec 1863.

John B. Graves b. 22 Mar 1837 was the third child of Stephen and Harriett.

John was born in Murray Co., Georgia. John md in Dec to E. _____.

John had an interesting service record which in part will be included here.
He enlisted in Co I Second Regiment Arkansas Mounted Rifles CONFEDERATE=
He enlisted at "Contonment Bee, Ark" on 21 Dec 1861 for one year. At his enlistment he was given a $160 horse and $20 equipment. In Mar and Apr 1862 he was reported sick, and from 28 Feb to 30 June 1862 he was given "horse pay" of $48.80. 11 July 1862 he was again given another $160 horse and $10 of equipment for "traveling to place of rendezvous" which was 60 miles away. Again for July and Aug 1861 he was given $73.20 pay. Then General Brigg sent him on a detail to Ark. In Nov and Dec 1862 he was sent on detached service. On 18 Jan 1863 he was reported "deserted", but the interesting part is that he had only enlisted for 1 year or 12 months and at the time of his "desertion" he had already served his 12 months. John did return to his unit and continued to serve although his enlistment was up. He served until at least Feb 1864. John's children were:

Robert Graves
Garland Graves
Naomia Graves
Lucy Graves
Ellie Graves
Irene Graves

William G. Graves was the 4th child of Stephen and Harriett. He was b. 21 May 1838 in Murray Co., Georgia. He md Mahala Baxter on 16 or 22 May 1861. William was called "Will" and he and Mahala were md at Black Jack Ark. He d. 6 Sept 1908 in Mansfield, Ark. and she d. 16 Feb 1916. Their children:
Jasper Graves b. 1863 in Scott Co., Ark and died young.
James Frank Graves b. 16 May 1867 in Scott Co., Ark. d. bef 1972.
Henry Stephen b. 1 Nov 1869 in Scott Co., Ark. Was living in Mansfield/
Dora E. Graves b. 9 Nov 1871 in Ark. / in 1965.
Charles C. Graves b. 29 Mar 1874 in Ark.
Dellah B. Graves b. 24 Mar 1876 in Ark.
Fanny E. Graves b. 24 May 1878 in Ark.

(Will Graves also served in the Civil War; he was in Co. I Second Regiment Arkansas Cavalry, Union Army and served from Sept 15, 1863 to 22 May 1865. He served as a 2nd Lt.)

Henry Mark Graves was the fifth child of Stephen and Harriett. Mark was b. 27 Feb 1843 in Murray Co., Georgia. He md Eugen _____ and later md again. Mark had two children by his first wife. Names unknown. The children by his second wife are:

George (may be the George W. Graves recorded as "grandchild of Stephen" who was b. 3 Feb 1862 in Scott Co., Ark.)
Alsey Graves
Nellie Graves
Helen Graves
Onelia Graves

Martha Caroline Graves was Stephen's sixth child. She was b. 30 Sept 1845 in Saline Co., Ark. She probably md Franklin Bates. She was md 21 June 1863, and only one of their children were recorded:

Stephen G. Bates b. 16 Sept 1864 in Kansas.

George W. Graves was the last child of Stephen and Harriett Graves. George was b. 11 Sept 1848 in Saline Co., Ark. He d. age 28 on 15 Mar 1877:

THIS CONCLUDES THE CHILDREN OF STEPHEN AND HARRIETT (KING) GRAVES= a few notes will follow:

When I last heard from Ralph Graves he had several leads into the grandfather of Stephen Graves which I feel should be included here. A record was found which gave the information... Henry Graves of Davidson Co., Tenn md 2 Oct 1809 in Davidson Co., Tenn to Sallie Allen. Henry was the son of John Graves who possibly d. 1825 and is buried at Wilson Co., Tenn.

Also I found a Stephen Graves of Monroe Co., Tenn who was the son of Stephen Graves who d. bef 28 Apr 1829 and some of his heirs were: Silas and Stephen and Betsey who had md William Garner. Also among the Monroe Co., Tenn Deed records were other names found among the Graves family. They are McCurdy, King, Dyer; also was noted a William C Graves who was a minister of the Gospel, with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Of Stephen's five sons, four of them fought during the Civil War, but as noted above two were with the Union-Jim and Will; and two fought with the South - Mark and John. George was too young to enlist either way.

Among the early settlers of North Western Arkansas were Stephen, Thomas, and James Graves. These may have been some of the brothers of Stephen - that is Thomas and James, may have been brothers.

Stephen Graves served as clerk for Scott Co., Ark. from 1858 to 1860.

"The Graves family is an old and honored one in North Carolina and in Caswell County. The census of 1790 does show a Henry Graves in Caswell County." This information sent by the North Carolina State Library.

In Caswell Co., N=C. Deed Book E. p 126 dated 4 Apt 1786 John Graves, Sr., was deeded land on County Line Creek (102 acres). In Deed Book G p 101 dated 19 Oct 1790. John Graves, Sr. deeded land to Ann and John Yancey. In Will Book B p. 459 John Graves Sr. will is recorded and dated 20 Mar 1792.

In early census records I found numerous Graves families in the same areas of Arkansas that Stephen and family lived. I will list them here in case there might just be someone who will have a clue as to who they might be.

George W. B. Graves b. 1825 in Ark md. 1848 to Cordelia A. _____

Thomas W. Graves b. 1823 in Tenn md Jane _____ in 1850.

Richard b. 1808 in Tenn md Elizabeth.

Thomas Graves b. 1828 in Tenn (blacksmith) md Palmira _____ =

John C. Graves @1795; James C. Graves @1805; Thomas Graves b. 1784.

Also we have the family record of L. Buchanan Graves b. 1851 in Tenn, BUT who were his parents and were they related? Buck was living in Sebastian Co., Ark, most of his early life. He married Elizabeth Glem-entine Talkington (daughter of James Allen and Mary Talkington) and by the 1880 census had three children as follows: F. B. (dau) age 4, Charles S. age 3, and William L. age 1, all b. in Ark.

BOOK REVIEW

"The Descendants of GEORGE ALLEN VAUGHAN (1840-1912) of Sevier County, Arkansas" by his grandson of the same name, published August 1976, is a recent gift by the author, to the Library of Arkansas Genealogical Society.

This is an interesting story of the life of a man born in Western Georgia to parents who came there from South Carolina and traveled west to settle at Locksburg in Sevier County, Arkansas in 1858. The very generous information about the family came from two diaries, one of which covered his experiences as a Confederate soldier and the other which began shortly after his marriage. Other information came down through his oldest son and his daughters. The numbered descendants cover four generations down to the present day. The 21 pages are each enclosed in plastic and are bound in a soft paperback cover. This family was of Welch origin. The author, George Allen Vaughan, is retired and lives at 201 North Vine, Fayette, Missouri, 65248

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mr. Vaughan delivered this very good book, in person to our headquarters, on June 5, 1977, when he came to Little Rock for his 50th class reunion of the 1927 Little Rock High School graduating class. (Our thanks also to Robert Dhonau for this review). Our A.G.S. Library is now on 2nd floor at Little Rock Public Library Genealogy Room.

This film is very plain but the writing is hard to read. So many of the letters look alike; "r", "n" and "v" are made alike. Very poor job of crossing the "t" and letters like "emmer" have no definite shape.

WHEAT FAMILY BIBLE

Editor's Note: The following was contibuted by Mrs. James H. Bryan, 2015 South Shore, Benton, AR 72015. This Family Bible is in the possession of Mr. Marcus Edward Wheat, of Lonoke, AR. This was typed by his daughter Mrs. Ann Wheat Bryan. I understand that an old Family Bible on the Wheat Family, is a rare item. A person from Virginia told me that they couldn't locate any Wheat Family Bibles, with early dates in them. This is what is on the front page of the Bible:

Presented with the best wishes of your friend, Moses Greenwood, born, May 23, 1808. I don't know what this means but it was on the front page, also, New Orleans, January 1st, 1869.

This book was presented to ME and I bequeath it to my beloved wife, Louisa Boone Wheat January 5th, 1906. Captain Patrick Henry Wheat. Since writing the above my son Patrick Henry Wheat has requested me to give him this book, and I cheerfully comply with his request, my dear wife fully concurring. Believing it will be greatly received by him of his dear children, for many generations, the book contains the hand writing, of Thomas Hobson Walton, the father of my Sons dear Mother (Lavinia Ann Walton). Written July 27, 1907, Lonoke, Ark. Pat. H. Wheat.

This is on Page 2 of the Bible that we have.

I was born at Old Hamilton, between the Butta-Hachie and Toiu Bigbe River, Old Hamilton was then the County Site of Monroe County, Mississippi, Aberdeen is now the County Site. I was born on the twenty fourth day of October 1823, God in his goodness has spared my life for 83 years and in my feeble way I give heart felt thanks for his many mercies. I write this at Lonoke, Arkansas on the 24th day of October, 1906. Patrick Henry Wheat.

BRYAN FAMILY BIBLE

Editor's Note: This Bible record was also contributed by Mrs. Jane H. Bryan, 2015 South Shore, Benton, AR 72015.

This family Bible of Steve Furr Bryan, is in the possession of James Harlon Bryan. Harlon's Father, Lloyd Hoyt Bryan gave this Bible to Marlon also, October 1976. There was nothing in the Bible except Steve Furr Bryan's name. I filled in the information from newsclippings from Hall Co. History, Georgia, that was sent to me, and off of tombstone inscriptions. From Georgia and Arkansas, that I collected in my Ancestor Hunt. This Bible was given to Steve Furr Bryan by Mary Lena Clo O'Kelley Bryan, as I understand. Benjamin Bryan b. 1818, d. 1881 is as far back as we can go for sure. Hopefully, someone else may help us locate Benjamin's parents.

INTERESTING OLD LETTERS - 1858

Editor's Note: The following was contributed by Mary E. Allen, 2436 S. Graham, Apt. 12 Seattle, WA 98108. "Enclosed are copies of letters from my Great Grandfather to his wife, and from her Son and Daughter-in-law, that I thought might be of interest to our members and readers of Arkansas Family Historian. I tried to make copies of the original handwriting, but they are quite faded & I couldn't get a clear copy."

Copy of letter from Rev. John F. King to his wife Rachel.
Huntsville Alabama

Dear Wife:

I reached here yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. Much fatigued having lost three nights sleep. But today I feel much refreshed. The Opening sermon of the assembly was preached by C. C. Reed, the Moderator. We have a very full house. Brethern here from almost every part of the union. I hope we shall have a good meeting. I feel quite interested to see so many of the best talents of our Church all together. I recon I shall have something in the ten days. Should anything strange occur during the assembly I will write again. I think we will close about this day week, then I shall go to Rogersville on Friday and spend the week with my friends until I get a letter from S. R. and W. Berry. I have been looking in the office this morning but no letters. This is the 4th letter I have written you since I left home. One from Ozark, one from Memphis and one from Oxford. I still hope I shall receive a letter from some of you during the time of the assembly. I stated in my last that I should try to get home by the 12th of June if the river should keep up.

To write everything and the names of all the old preachers who are here in attendance beside, would be to write a volum. I will only write some you know such as Rubin Burrow, William S. Burney, Carson P. Reed and Isaac Shook, and others with whom you were not so well acquainted. Brother Schook looks old and his head is as white as cotton.

I will close this epistle.

Yours affectionately
Rev. John F. King

Note: After this trip the the Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly in Huntsville, Rev. King reached home, only to become ill and died in the Fall of 1858. His wife Rachel, lived to the age of 92. She died December 19, 1899 in Athena, Oregon. Her maiden name was Rachel Curley and in childhood moved to Alabama. On January 17, 1828, she married John F. King. In 1833 they moved to Kings River Arkansas. In 1836 he became a delegate to the Territorial Convention, which framed the Constitution of Arkansas, just prior to and preparatory to her reception to Statehood. Mrs. King lived to see four generations of her descendants. 4 of the first, 36 of the second, 61 of the third and four of the fourth generation. She was born in Tennessee in 1807, her childhood was spent during the stirring scenes and trials of the revolutionary war, and its succeeding influences. She was a child of six when the battle of New Orleans was fought, and distinctly remembered and after recounted the incidents of the night Jackson and his Army of Tennessee soldiers camped at here father's (Joel Curley) farm, on their way to the defense of New Orleans, she having two uncles in Jackson's army. (Davis and Jeremiah Curley) This information was taken from Obituary in the Athens Times, Athena Oregon).

Copy of a letter written to Rachel King, wife of Rev. John F. King, Cumberland Presbyterian Minister, War Eagle, Washington and Carroll Townships, by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jenny King, wife of Col. James P. King, Fagans Brigade, Price's Div. Confederate Army. Rachel King was my Great Grandmother. Mr. Sanders was my Grandfather.

Pleasant Hill Ark.

Dear Mother:

July 20, 1862

We received letters from both Mr. Saunders (Sanders, Patrick Henry, Capt.) and Mr. King (Col. James P. King) some weeks since but neglected answering them. We heard of the regiment to which Mr. Sanders belongs while at Little Rock, but nothing directly from him. There company made came in Van Buren about a month or six weeks ago of which Mr. King was elected Capt. since that time he has been at home very little. It is now two weeks since he was at home. I heard a few days since that he had been appointed Maj. of the regiment and that the regiment had been ordered to Evansville but have not heard for certain whether it has or not. When he wrote to me last which has been a week since, he wrote he would be home in a few days if they were not ordered away, if so he would not be home for four or five weeks. You sent me word not to let him go. I would not if there was any way to get out of it, for I believe he hates to go and leave me as bad as I hate to have him go (if possible). We have Northern papers giving accounts of the late Richmond Battle of which I suppose you have heard. They estimate their loses at 88,000. They also state that peace is strongly talked of as England and France was going to interfere. I do hope peace will be made soon. I will close for this evening hoping Mr. King will be home this evening or that I may get a letter from him tomorrow. I will tell you the news if there is any in a few days.

July 27, 1862

As you see it has been a week since I wrote the first part of this letter. Mr. King came home last Monday and went back Wednesday and I could not leave him long enough to finish it while he was here. He was not very well when at home. He had a very bad cold. We have some news but do not know if it is true or not, it is said we have retaken Fort Pillow and that they made an attack on Vicksburg with their gun boats and we whipped them and sunk seven of their gun boats. Mr. King said I must not leave off writing to you till I had told you that by the time you get this letter that we expect a stranger at our house (a little King) if we have no bad luck. I shall look for Mr. King home in a few days since he has been appointed Maj. of the regiment they do not let him off to come home as often as they did. We do not have any idea when the regiment will have to leave Ft. Smith. I hope not at all for I hope peace will be made and there will be no use for them. The Federals come to Fayetteville when they get ready and leave when they get ready. They have been there four or five times the last five weeks. We would be glad to have you come and see us. I do not think you ought to treat your daughters so much better than your son, but think you should divide time with them. Give our love to all

Your affectionate daughter,
Jennie King

Don't let anyone see this letter. Write soon.

Note: (The envelope shows this letter was sent from Pleasant Hill Ark for 10 cents postage to Mrs. Rachel King, Weatherford, Parker Co. TX. In care of William H. Berry, husband of daughter Sarah A. King. Other daughter mentioned was my Grandmother Eliza Jane King Saunders, wife of Patrick Henry Saunders, Capt. Parkers Tx. Cav.

20 September 1862

We have the prettiest and sweetest little baby you ever saw, a girl, we call her Mary Caroline. She was born on the 17 of August. Mr. King has not been home for four weeks before and got here just about two hours before she was born. We call her Mary for Ma and Caroline for Mrs. Scott of Van Buren who has been very good friend to both Mr. King and myself. Tell Eliza she is very much mistaken about Mr. King as he petted Carrie more while he was at home than ever I did. If she cried of a night he would cuddle her and walk her about until she got quiet. Capt Pennywit was hear while I was sick and he had to take her in to see him. Mrs. Scott says Mr. King thinks nobody ever had a baby but him and Pa says he is the greatest baby nurse he ever seen. I think Carrie looks very much like you we all think she looks like you. Mr. King has your daguerotype, he says it is not very good one of you but it is good enough for us to see she looks very much like you. Carrie laughs so you can hear her all over the house. Don't let anybody read this. Give my love to Angeline and Eliza and tell them to write to me.

Jennie

Copy of letter from Col. James P. King to his Mother Rachel King.

Little Rock
Apr 27, 1864

Dear Mother.

After a long silence I again write you a few lines. Jennie has wrote you several times since you last and things are not going on in this country as well as we could wish. The fight at Prairie Grove not withstanding. We whipped it, proved to be a very disastrous one to us. My ~~loss~~ in the fight was a very heavy

one. I lost one hundred and thirty two men, killed and wounded out of less than five hundred men. I still have a fine Regt. an am ready for another fight. We have a very fine army here and will move in a few days but where to I can't tell. Jennie and the baby are here but will start up the river in the morning. Mr. Wilson had to leave home when the Federals came to Van Buren and the Jay Hawks got nearly all the household goods, we had. One of the Negroes went to the Feds and the rest are at Gully Rock about fifty miles above here, Mr. Wilson died since leaving here and has left Jennie and Mrs. Wilson (Jennie's parents) without anyone to take care of them. We have lost considerable property but still have enough for a good living if this accursed war was over. I don't know whether I will ever get back home or not but I hope I will if for nothing else but to get satisfaction out of a few persons living in the neighborhood. I hope this war will soon be over so that we may go home and live in peace and quiet. I then intend to have you come and live with us. I have enough for us all if I can keep it and I wish you could see Carrie. She is very pretty and very smart. She has five little teeth and can almost walk. She can say Pa tolerably plain. I think she is one of the sweetest babes in the world. Tom left her a few days ago to join his command. They are going to Missouri on River. I don't know whether they will get there or not but I hope they will. Jennie joins me in sending our very best love to you all. Please write often. Direct your letters to Col. J. P. King, Fagans Brigade, Prices Div.

Your affectionate son until death
J. P. King

ONE OF OUR MANY NICE THANK YOU LETTERS - 1977

May 25, 1977

Arkansas Family Historian, Editor
Dear Mrs. Cia:

Just wanted you to know how pleased I am. I joined AFH in 1975 (at least my library goes back to the Jan 1975 issue.

Just recently I decided to expand my AFH library by ordering the 1974 issues. Of course. I started by reading the Jan-Mar quarter first, and finally the Oct-Dec last.

It was this issue that contained an article that really astounded me. There before me was something I had been searching for, for a long time. I always find something of interest in every issue, but this one really outdid itself! My sincere thanks to Lillian McGowen and Marie Murphy for copying the CEMETERY at SANDY BENN, Union County, Ark. Only three listed are not known to be related (at least at this time) to my wife.

These two ladies copied this cemetery in 1973 and it was June 1973 that I did extensive cemetery searches in Lafayette and Union counties, Ark. and Union Parish, La. I also did library and History Commission research in Little Rock.

I found all my grandparents and great grandparents and two of my wife's grandparents. We were missing two others: Eugene B. Duke and Rachel Ann Knowles! With this published information I can now find them!

Please convey my sincere thanks to Lillian McGowen and Marie Murphy for their copy work & to the Arkansas Family Historian for publishing this information!

Sincerely,
Edwin Swafford

BELL Lois (Bell) Anderson, 10310 Margarita, Fountain Valley, CA 92708 - HELP!
Does any one have information on Co. F, 2nd Arkansas Infantry, during the Civil War? My Great Great Grandfather, Arch BELL was in that regiment and I have heard (but have no proof) that it was made up of Indian, half breed, colored, malatto and some whites. Family folklore has it that we have Indian blood. My Aunt told me Arch BELL (Archabold BELL) was killed by the Ku Klux Klan. She said Arch and Sarah BELL were home killing hogs, when they saw some men riding up on horses. Arch sent Sarah and the children in the house. The man took Arch off down by the river and killed him. This would have probably been between 1864 and 1870 in the area of what is now Logan County, Ark., and was probably near Magazine, Booneville or Ione. I would like any information, from newspapers, burial records, etc. Also would like to correspond with anyone who has knowledge of the Cemeteries in Logan County, Ark.

WOODS interested in the WOOD - WOODS FAMILIES. Our publication of genealogical material on the WOOD/WOODS Families in America, in honor of the Bicentennial much emphasis was placed on those members of the family who fought for the freedom of our country in the Revolutionary War, as well as in all other Wars in which this country has been engaged. Other records published include census records, deeds, wills, estate settlements, marriages, tombstone inscriptions, church records, records of patriotic organizations, Bible and family records, biographical sketches from old newspapers, abstracts from early newspapers, obituaries, etc. A section is devoted to queries, which is free to subscribers. Contributions of such material are welcomed, and it is hoped that by sharing and publishing these records many genealogical problems may be solved, and the records preserved for future generations. My great great grandfather, John Nelson CHENAULT, d. in Little Rock, AR in 1864. Last year Mrs. Haley provided me with some CHENAULT data she had in her files which mentioned that this great - parent resided for a time at West Station, Hill Co., AR and some other pertinent information, but no information about his death. SULLENS Mrs. John Harrison, Rt. 3, Russellville, AR 72801 - I am searching for records of deeds or other indications of land purchases by Jesse SULLENS in Greene County, Ark., ca 1849. In fact, any information I can find about Jesse SULLENS will be greatly appreciated. His WILL would be a real "find" and establish family connections that I know are true, but have no legal proof. However, I have no idea when he died. He was 52 years old in 1850, according to the Greene County Census. I will be happy to exchange data.

PROPST Mrs. Garnet Propst Vance, P. O. Box 207, Black Rock, AR 72415 - I am trying CAZORT to trace the ancestry of my father's people at present. The Nelson and COLE Elizabeth PROPST Family who lived at Cotton Plant for a period after 1850 - and Anthony and Mary Ann CAZORT. Am more interested in the CAZORTS right now, where they descended from and who Mary Ann was -- a BURGESS or BLACKWELL. It is said they were in the Smithville, Lawrence Co., Arkansas area as early as 1838. They were born 1810 and 1811 respectively. I am searching for the CAZORT Family Bible. There was never a fire to destroy it. There were 11 CAZORT girls and one boy. Also need information on a Charlie COLE, who lived at Mena, Polk Co., Ark., in late 1800s; also a Frank COLE. Is my grandfather Nelson PROPST buried at Cotton Plant? After his death, my grandmother took the family back to North Carolina. They were traveling through Tennessee during the Civil War ?
 and their horses were seized and they had to finish the journey by oxen-pulled covered wagons. From there I have a copy of Family WILLS and three generations out of North Carolina. I will be happy to exchange data.

 SHAVER 3624-623 - I am working on WISDOM-SHAVER Genealogy. My father was Thomas J.

NEWMAN Mrs. Norma Jane Newman Smith, R. R. 1, Box 1348H, Granit City, ILL 62040 -
 WINDES Tillman Fineas NEWMAN, b. 3 June 1860, at or near Leon ? or Chismville, Logan CRAWFORD Co., Ark., d. 11 Jan 1887. This man was my great grandfather, and 1st married a lady named Susan WINDES, who died 12 ? 1881, approximately 11 months after they were married. He later married Lydia Azalee CRAWFORD, of Mayfield, KY on 4 May 1884, and one child was born of this marriage, Susan Grace, 17 March 1885. The following people were relatives of Tillman, and I believe his brothers and perhaps one of them is his father, because family letters and papers contain correspondence from all of them to Lydia (after Tillman's death and after she returned to Mayfield) from these NEWMANS, postmarked Chismville, AR, and one just postmarked Logan Co., AR. All were alive in the late 1880s and early 1900s, and I believe most of them would have lived into the 1900s, but certainly all would have died subsequent to 1887. John S. L.; Henry: H. L. (maybe Henry L.); James; M. A.; John L.; James T.; and Nola Jane NEWMAN. Cemetery stone, death certificate, newspaper items obituaries, Bible records, or any other information on any of these people would certainly be appreciated. Would also like to contact any descendant of these people. I believe Tillman was the Secretary of the Cedar Bend Union Sunday School, at or near Chismville (maybe Leon) in the early 1800s, and that his father or one of his relatives, I believe H. L.
 NEWMAN was the Treasurer.

CHOATE Bruce M. Choate, 1001 Bonnie Dr., Lafayette, LA 70503 - I am a grandson of O'NEAL Pioneer Arkansas settler Green A. CHOATE. He and his brother Andrew Jackson
 BRYLES CHOATE came in early in 1800s to Arkansas & prior to 1833 to Independence Co., Ark. In 1833 Green A. CHOATE married Polly Ann O'NEAL, daughter of an earlier settler O'Bijah O'NEAL to a settlement later called O'NEAL Northwest of Batesville. They had 5 sons, 3 daughters (1834-1849). I am the son of Richard William CHOATE and Richard S.
 CHOATE of Walnut Rldge, AR is the grandson of another, Austin CHOATE, both of whom fought in for the Confederacy. We do not have any information on William, born 1838, George b. 1836 or Charles, b. 1843 or the girls Elizabeth M. BRYLES, Sarah, or May. We have information from the 1860 Census of Desha Co., Ark., that Andrew Jackson CHOATE, b. ca 1826 married Martha, b. 1835, and the above George both joined the Desha Co. Militia. I have not been able to find if they were called into the War as a unit or what? The other two boys were the right ages to be called also but we have no information on them, nor of the girls. I will appreciate any information or direction for my further inquiries. I am interested generally in the CHOATE family and know of several branches in Arkansas, which may furnish some clues to our own "gaps". Any additional information will be appreciated and I will be happy to exchange with other who might be searching for their CHOATE Family in Arkansas.

LOGAN Joan Evetts Kuehl, Box 1071, Kingsland, TX 78639 - It appears that nearly all past relatives came from Arkansas. However I have some major holes in my "treet". I will be most grateful for any additional information on any of these people. It is impossible for me to do the searching myself for at least another 5 years & I just can't bare to wait that long. I'm not choosy - I'll take any information. The aforementioned people are the "lost sheep" of the clan.

Daniel LOFFER, wife Charity, and their son Henry Sylvester LOFFER, and his wife Sarah E., all lived in Sugar Loaf Twonship, Boone Co., Ark. in the 1880s, and moved to Hampton Township, Madison Co., Ark., by 1900. The only trace of these people, so far has been through the Census Records. Daniel died ca 1901, & Henry died about 1912/14. Possibly in Marion Co., but I have not had any luck getting a record of these deaths. Can any one help with any information on these people? How can I find out the names of the cemeteries in Hampton Township, Marion Co.? I need to locate the burial place of these LOFFERS. Can any one advise me how best to proceed to uncover any information that might exist on these men, Birth, death, marriage, Baptismal records, etc? Also I would like to know what newspapers were in existance in the 1880s and early 1900s? also be documented back two more generations to a Rev. Patriot. I am working on Deloach (27) and have proof of two more generations there, too.
Currently I am working on the WHITE line (7-14-28) and the Gholson line (1-2-4-8-16). I have documentary proof of every name, date or place listed on my chart, and Family Group sheets on most. I have copied the records from the Bible of 6. John Calvin SHERRY, my great grandfather, and inclose them herein. It might be of interest to know the grandson of 12. Green William SHERRY, is still living! His name is Charlie SHERRY, and he lives with his daughter, Mrs. Leta Johnson in Prairie Grove, Washington Co., Ark.
Charlie grew up in Strickler, Ark., in the Butterfield stage stop, and only vacated it a few years ago. Sure wish the log building could be preserved by someone! I HOPE someone want to know what information I have on CARROL White! EDITOR'S NOTE: Mrs. Walker recently borrowed a friend's back issue (1962 Arkansas Family Historian, and found someone else had a Query about her great grandfather CARROL WHITE - her letter was returned, but then people do move in 15 years!) Mrs. Mildred C. Gholson Walker's Chart should appear in our Volume VIII Ancestor Charts (now being gathered for publication).

MR. SHERRY BURIED AT ROGERS THURSDAY

Funeral services for John Calvin Sherry who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Gholson, 200 S. College avenue Wednesday noon, were held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. M. Asbell, pastor of First Christian church. Following the service the body was taken to Rogers for burial.

Mr. Sherry was born 10 miles south of Fayetteville, Apr. 15, 1837, the son of Green William Sherry and Delilah Ingraham Sherry. He was married to Miss Susan White Dec. 29, 1859. She died Aug. 1, 1912. Surviving are one son, Albert Sherry of Springdale, and four daughters, Mrs. Gholson, Fayetteville; Mrs. E. A. Counts, Elkins; Mrs. Sarah Fletcher, Leeds, Mo; and Mrs. Henry True, Clarkston, Wash.

Pallbearers were T. J. Conner, J. W. Pinkerton, Walter Lucas, Claude Fritts, George J. Rodgers and Andy Cowan.

MRS. J. C. SHERRY

Died at her home in Roger, Aug. 1, 1912. Mrs. Susan Sherry, wife of J. C. Sherry, who was born in Washington county, Ark., March 7, 1839. She was united in marriage to her surviving husband, Dec. 29, 1859, and to this union were born nine children. One son and four daughters to mourn their lose. Three daughters and one son preceded the mother to the other side, One daughter lives in Washington state.

Mrs. Sherry has been a consecrated Christian nearly 45 years and spent 15 years of that time in Rogers. Her consecration was evident to all who associated with her.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Can anyone help Mrs. Walker? She needs to know where these, and other SHERRY family members are buried. What Cemetery in or near Rogers.

RICHARDSON Mrs. Patty Redlin, Rt. #3 Box 639, Knox, Ind. 46534 - Need
TAYLOR information on Ancestors of Mary Frances RICHARDSON, b. 22
FEATHERSTON March 1853 and married 7 Nov. 1869 in Boone Co., AR to William Thomas TAYLOR, b. 15 June 1849. She is found in 1860 Arkansas Census in Carroll Co., AR living with her parents, James K. and Martha RICHARDSON. She is found in 1870 Ark. Census living in Newton Co., AR with her husband. Their children: Alonzo; Mattie; James Thomas; Richard Pryor; Henry Lafayette; Roxie Lee; Sally Pearl and Charles Ogden.
They left Ark., after 1890 and settled in Collin Co., TX. A known relative was Prior Lee RICHARDSON, M. D., who served as a Lt. in Confederate States Army. He died in the Soldier's Home in Little Rock, AR in 1916.
Members of her RICHARDSON Family have married FEATHERSTONS for several generations. Her grandparents were probably Thomas L. RICHARDSON and Frances Kates RICHARDSON. (Would like proof). The family came to Ark.
after 1850 from Tenn. I have more information on other members of these RICHARDSON Families and would like to share with others.

Alexander TAYLOR married Mary A. RICHARDSON on 20 Aug. 1871 in Boone Co., Arkansas (Marriage Book A, page 70). His brother, William Thomas TAYLOR married Mary Frances RICHISON (Richardson) on 7 Nov. 1869 in Boone Co., AR (Marriage Book A, page 1). In the land records in Boone Co., Ark., are found several transactions between W. T. TAYLOR & John A. and Mary A.
TAYLOR. There were two known sisters, Mary who died at age 15 and Martha Jane TAYLOR who married a Mr. HARRIS and they raised a family in Love Co., Oklahoma. Need more information on siblings and who the parents were.
There is known Indian blood in family.

UPCHURCH James C. Read, 106 Cumberland Road, Warner Robins, GA 31093
SLATON My Ancestor Chart is far from complete, but I have been active BOURLAND in genealogical research only one year, and it is my hope that someone in the Arkansas Genealogical Society can learn something from my Chart and in turn can help me connect some of my lines. For the benefit of anyone who may be interested in the UPCHURCH, SLATON, or BOURLAND Families, I have in my Library a book on the UPCHURCH lineage, one on the SLATONS and I am now completing my own compilation of BOURLAND history for publication this fall (1977). I shall be happy to answer Queries about these families. The BOURLANDS were among the early settlers in Franklin County, Arkansas - where my great grandfather, Ebenezer BOURLAND is buried.

AKE Martha Ward Presson, P. O. Box V, Van Buren, AR 72956 - I WARD am searching for the parents of Letha Leah AKE, b. ca 1800 probably in Bedford or Franklin Co., Tenn. She married William WARD, 1818 and in 1839 they came to what is now Lavaca, Arkansas.
Several AKE Families came there at the same time, in fact, so many that at one time Lavaca was called AKEVILLE and there was a post-office there.
Felix Grundy AKE, Joseph AKE, Caselton B. H. AKE and John AKE have been recorded in this area of Arkansas. Their birthdates from Census records would indicate they were possibly brothers to Letha AKE WARD. Their mother's maiden name was Bridget O'BRIEN. I need desperately to find the AKE father's given name. Any information on any AKE family or descendant would be of value for inclusion in compilation of all branches of the AKE families.

PEVEHOUSE I am searching for information on the children of Daniel CAMPBELL PEVEHOUSE, b. ca 1785, PA., wife Betsy (Elizabeth) b. ca 1805.
They took land in Crawford Co., Arkansas in 1837, 1838, and 1840. They were active in the Dripping Springs Cumberland Presbyterian Church. There were four sons and three daughters. The early records also show a Christopher PEVEHOUSE and a female, Christina PEVEHOUSE who married Samuel CAMPBELL. Can anyone help establish the relationship between these people? (Martha Ward Presson, P O Box V, Van Buren, AR 72956) their residence listed as Sulphur Springs Township. Mathew EBERLE was killed in their early years there. Mrs. Mary EBERLE remarried in 1898 to a David ZEIDLER, recorded in Sevier County, Ark. Antimony City ? was their address. She died shortly after 1900/01.

From the National Archives, I found land patent proceedings starting in 1905 with the U.S.A.
and a son Mathew EBERLE, who married in 1904, address also Antimony City, Ark. The land was located - The West 1/2 of the Southwest 1/4 of Section 20, Township 6 South, Range 30 West, 80 acres in Sulphur Springs Township. Could this have been the same farm his parents had? I would like to locate the graves of Mary and Mathew EBERLE. Could someone help me with the names and locations of cemeteries in that area? I have been told that area may now be under water because of a recent dam built there. None of this family has resided there since in the 1920s. I hope to make a trip there someday and would like to find out as much as possible before I do. Any information will be appreciated.

are Mary (who may be George's wife) she's listed as 16 yrs ?; Nancy 15, Malissa 13, Caswell 9; Jabry 6 mos.; Solomon 3; John 5; Martha 11. All are Jabry could belong to George and Mary, and since he was born in NC, the family would have had to migrate to Ark., in 1849. (4) Caswell was born in

Regiment, Ark. Mounted Militia & was killed at Corinth, Miss. It is unknown register. Elizabeth Hannah SINCLAIR, my great grandmother, married Daniel P. TAYLOR, at Dover, Pope County, Ark., on 13 August 1867 & lived at Blackwell, Conway Co., Ark., for sometime, then moved to Witt Springs, Pope Co.,

SPARKMAN Harold L. McNabb, 319 North Maple, Mt. Prospect, Ill. 60056
I am trying to find information about my Great Grandmother Sarah A. SPARKMAN, who lived in Randolph Co., AR about 1870. I located an old Diary in the possession of Charles SPARKMAN, who lives in a small town near here in Illinois. The following information taken from the diary may be of value to other people in Northeast Arkansas. Much of this information is not available anywhere in writing. I believe the writer was simply trying to jot down some important facts for the family to remember. Stuck in the diary were several recipes clipped from St. Louis papers and an obituary for James H. SPARKMAN, a native of Reyno, Randolph Co., AR So far I have not been able to connect my Sarah A. SPARKMAN, with other SPARKMAN family names. Perhaps one of our readers will set me straight. I will welcome any help. Notes from the diary:

Fri Jan 1, 1932 - Took dinner with Billy today. Paid Elmer a visit.
Mon Jan 4 1943 - Charles left for Great Lakes, Ill. to take navy training.
Charles came home from Cynthiana, Nov. 16, 1942. He went back to work for Compton & Sons. the 18 of Nov.

MERIOTT Elva Pearl Merriott, 2351 Etiwanda St., San Diego, CA
 OATES 92107 - I am happy to report that I am getting results
 HUNTER from Queries on my lines. A man in Denver, CO asking help HULSEY and giving me help in return, on one of my MERRIOTT lines, McKINLEY another reader in North Carolina has answered that the John STEWART OATES line published in the POPE COUNTY HISTORICAL MAGAZINE and my Charles H. OATES were brothers and gave me further data and a place where I can order a book on the family, which I ordered at once. I was helped far beyond my wildest dreams! Another from Little Rock, gave help on HUNTER, HULSEY, McKINLEY & STEWART Lines. I was able to help her as I knew most of these people. My TILLERY line is just simmering on the back burner of the stove, nothing hot going at this time, same as my DODD Line.

The Story - Letter by Mrs. Gary Cone, of Texas, I enjoyed so much.
 I did not know any other man moved his family about the country as much as my father moved us about. I checked the area covered and it was in a sort of circle not over 150 miles in diameter. This family could have done as my mother said one time when she borrowed sugar from a householder, saying that she would pay it back on her way back to Texas from Arkansas. I know for a fact that one year later she did pay it back. Friends were made along the way from Arkansas to Texas and back. The old saying a "Rolling Stone gathers no moss! Father's come back would be "a setting hen grew no new feathers!"

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is only one of many nice letters, telling about the various help given by others thru the Queries, and Ancestor Charts.
 This is just great and many members are helping in different ways.

DENNIS Ina P. Lester, 200 Florida St., Vallijo, CA 94590 - Just a

 Columbia County Genealogical Society (SO WE AR) telling about the reprint

 Rep. in the Ark. State Legislature. And a letter from Hope, Ark., giving me the date of birth of Mathue D. HARTSELL, his parents' names & date of their marriage in Cabarrus Co., N. C...Isn't that grand?! She had this information from a descendant of Bradford HARTSELL - The oldest son of Mathue D. (De Loach, she says - not Dennis -) There are people waiting for for this news - one - an 80 year old uncle!! Thank you "Family Historian"

KISER Mrs. W. W. Anderson, Box 1442, Del Rio, TX 78840 - I would

I am interested in any HUNT FAMILY who live in Arkansas, 1840-1860, especially in White County. Henson N. HUNT family was there in 1850, also D. B. HUNT FAMILY Dwelling 285 & 284, can anyone help with their relationship.

CARL E. M. Carl, Jr., 5409 Aurora Dr., Austin, TX 78756 - Thomas SHEDD CARL, b. 24 March 1802, Dutchess Co., New York. He migrated to SHEID Tennessee where he married a Miss Nancy SHEDD (SHEID) to whom MAXWELL 7 children were born. He moved his family to Arkansas in 1838.
Nancy died in 1839. He later married a Miss Cynthia MAXWELL to whom 7 children were also born. Cynthia died in 1874 and he died in 1891. Both are buried in the WORD Cemetery, near Decatur, Benton Co., Ark. It is known that Thomas CARL, the son and his descendants lived in Benton County, Ark., for many year. Many of his descendants still live in or near the towns of Bentonville, Siloam Springs and Gentry, Arkansas. Since Thomas E. CARL is known to have died in 1861, it is possible that he was buried in that area. We have no information as to the date and place of his wife's burial. Family lore indicates, Thomas E. CARL may have been an immigrant stowaway from Ireland. It is thought that early Arkansas records of Taxes, Land Purchases or Wills, as well as the U. S. Census Records of 1850 & 1860 in Arkansas might provide some information regarding the date and place of his birth, as well as for his Wife. Also if the place of his burial, if known, might provide some of such information, if indicated on the grave stone. Any information as to possible sources would be greatly appreciated, for further search of the origins of Thomas E. and Martha Jane CARL.

SLAVE'S Mrs. Lin Cafferty, Route 3 Box 242, Ames, Iowa 50010 - The GRAVE following information was taken from the quarterly "Hawkeye Heritage" published by the Iowa Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 3815, Des Moines, Ia. 50322, in Vol XII No 2 April 1977 page 56, by Dorothy K. Alvis, 33 Eaton, Little Rock, AR 72209. Our thanks to Mrs. Alvis for sharing with us.

A Black Slave's Grave is in Oakwood Cemetery, Independence, Iowa. An unmarked grave in lot 73, Oakwood Cemetery, Independence, Iowa is that of Thomas ADKINS/ATKINSON who died in Independence 28 Apr. 1879 at the age of 59. According to information in his Will and in the probate records, ADKINS was a slave prior to the Civil War who had escaped from his owner just before the Emancipation Proclamation. He then came to Iowa where he had lived ever since. He had been separated from his wife, Nancy, in 1862 in ARKANSAS. There were four children named Daniel, Carey, Diana and Robert in Arkansas or Louisiana. He WILLED his estate, under his own signature, to his family except that his wife was to receive none of it, if then living with another man.

His obituary in an Independence newspaper dated May 1879 reads in part: "Old Tom ATKINSON died last week in his house in the east part of the city. Tom was a miser and saved up a fortune amounting to several thousands. He lived alone and had not even a chair in his house. He once had a wife and children whom he left and claimed to be unable to ascertain their location. Now the problem is to find them."

The Buchanan County Genealogical Society wishes to place a marker on this grave, and would like to have permission to do this from one or more of Tom ADKIN'S descendants. Hopefully, one of Tom's descendants has become interested in his ancestry as a result of "Roots" and will find this information helpful to him. Please contact Mrs. Lin Cafferty.

MALOY Pat Maloy, 863 N. Homassel, Lindsay, CA 93247 - I just received the April-May-June 1977 issue of our "Ark. Family Historian" and I am happy to see the Query (page 127) on the MALOYS that my sister sent in (I am helping her with the research). I have high hopes that we will get some results from it. Any help we get from fellow members will be greatly appreciated. The main reason that I am writing, is that since the Query was sent in, we have received a letter from a distant relative, who we didn't even know existed. He is a grandson of the James MALOY mentioned in the Query! He says that James was called "Preacher Jim" and that during his life he had five wives! He also said the wives are all buried in Oak Grove Cemetery in Crosses, Marion Co., Ark. Can anyone in that area help me with any information on these grave sites? or any other information, about any of these people.

Incidentally, our "Family Historian" is very interesting and informative. The first-hand accounts of people's ancestors help to put meat on the bones of history.

CORRECTION PLEASE - 1964

I have just joined the Arkansas Genealogical Society, Inc. and received the Quarterly for this year (1977). I also ordered some of the Grab Bag issues (Back issues, with no certain dates - incomplete years) I enjoyed all of them very much, but I'd like to make a correction to an article that was in one of them. Summer 1964, article by Mrs. Pat Herrington, about Big Springs Cemetery, IZARD County, Arkansas. When I looked in the index, I turned to page sixteen and read the names that were on the tombstones. There were three that mean a lot to me, that were left out. My grandfather, Iversion Ryland Gunn, b. 9 August 1843 and died 7 August 1885 is buried there. His marker was hard to read about fifteen or twenty years ago and is impossible to read now. The other two left out are my great grandparents, Rev. Samuel Gunn and his wife Catherine Sherrill Gunn. Their stones are very easy to find as they are the tallest in the Cemetery. Their stones are still legible. Their inscriptions read -- Elder Samuel Gunn, born August 18, 1818, died October 17, 1886. Pastor of Concord Baptist Church from its organization, June 7, 1868 to October 1884. Catherine, wife of Samuel Gunn, born March 31, 1819, died January 22, 1893. They gathered to their graves in full age, like as a shock of corn that cometh in his season.

I have just returned from a visit to Arkansas and I visited the Big Springs Cemetery. The Cemetery is located between Sage and Sidney. Turn south at the sawmill, a short distance down the dirt road you come to some flat rocks, and a gate leading to the cemetery. You can drive to the cemetery now. For several years they have had a caretaker and it is mowed and looks very nice. I noticed one tombstone with the date 1973 on it and another grave that looked newer. As Mrs. Herrington said, in her article, it is a beautiful hillside location, surrounded by trees. The quietness and peacefulness felt there is undescribleable.

The rock church between the sawmill and Sage is the one that my great grandfather, Rev. Samuel Ginn organized. It is not the same building, but the same church.

One other tombstone in the cemetery that I copied was Susan Louise Sherrill, March 11, 1857 - July 16, 1943.

Louise Gunn Plant

EDITOR'S NOTE: Our thanks to Mrs. Plant, for sharing this additional information with us. If you have other information about this Cemetery or this Church, or the people in this area, let Mrs. Plant know about it. Mrs. Louise Gunn Plant, Box 262, Paducah, Texas 79248

But our ancestors moved all around and some left records in many different places. Direct contact with the researcher is recommended.
