IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Adelia Kittrell

Mrs. Adelia C. Kittrell, 87, of AUGUSTA, died Tuesday. Mrs. Kittrell was a member of First United Methodist Church, the Woodruff County Historical Society and the state Library Committee. Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Friday at First United Methodist Church. Burial will be in Augusta Memorial Park by Rhodes and Son Funeral Home. Survivors are four sons, Carl Kittrell of Sherwood, Charles Kittrell, John Kittrell of Augusta and William Kittrell of Denver, Colo.; a daughter, Mrs. Betty Beasley of Houston, Texas; three brothers, Otto Hueneseld of Sunnyside, Wash., Arnold Hueneseld of Augusta and William Hueneseld of Lincoln; 15 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Arkansas Democrat, Wednesday, May 13, 1987

Mrs. Kittrell was a long time member and staunch supporter of genealogy in general and Arkansas Genealogical Society in particular. She served on the Board of Directors of Arkansas Genealogical Society and was active in her community.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Since I have been kidnapped and taken to South Carolina by a husband assigned to temporary duty there, I thought I might take a few minutes to tell you a little about the South Carolina Archives and researching there. The government of South Carolina has been in existence for over 300 years, so, as you might imagine, the number of records that the Archives houses is tremendous. Upon your initial visit, you must register, and upon subsequent visits your registration form is stamped and activated. Parking space is provided, but you must go into the Archives for a permit and then return it to your car, before you start to research. The research hours are very generous: from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, and from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Sundays. Briefly, the Archives have the following records:

1. LEGISLATIVE RECORDS (Journals from 1692 and acts from 1691, supplemented by bills, petitions, reports, etc., from 1782)
2. COURT RECORDS (Journals and case papers of provincial and appellate courts)
3. STATE AGENCIES AND DEPARTMENTS (non-current records of existing and defunct organizations)
4. EXECUTIVE RECORDS (Council journals from 1671; governors' papers from 1860, with some scattered earlier material)
5. TREASURY RECORDS (Ledgers, journals, cash-books, vouchers, and stub-entry books from 1721)
6. LAND RECORDS (a real treasure! nearly complete from 1671!)
7. RECORDS OF THE SECRETARY OF THE PROVINCE AND STATE (wills, inventories of estates; marriage settlements, commissions, mortgages, bills of sale, registers of trademarks, and charters of incorporations since 1671; also a real treasure!)
8. MILITARY SERVICE RECORDS (complete since American Revolution)
9. COUNTY RECORDS (over 3,000 cubic feet!)
10. REFERENCE COLLECTION (microfilm from the British Public Record Office, private manuscripts, bibliographies, monographs, etc.)

The staff will answer queries and do a reasonable amount of research, for example indices, by mail.

I also wanted to remind you that the next issue of ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN will be a combined issue, September and December, so that the material you get in December will be our celebration of our twenty-fifth year -- a reprint of the first year's issues.

JAN EDDLEMAN

GENEALOGICAL & FAMILY HISTORY RECORDS Ed Sanders

Genealogists & Family Historians are very strange people. They will check into a hotel with the family. Then, while the others read a book, take a dip in the pool, or nap in the room, the family historian is reading the Telephone Directory. Later, when everyone else is visiting the zoo and the recreation park and sight-seeing, the family historian is strolling through the cemetery, squinting at the inscriptions on headstones, and making notes while muttering under his breath. He makes telephone calls across country late at night and hides the phone bill from his spouse. All of this is because he is greatly excited about something that does not appeal to some people at all. However, almost everyone is interested in his own family.

The existence of all information is fragile and each of us must take steps to preserve what we know in order for later generations to have much of it at all.

I. EVERYONE HAS SOME INFORMATION

You know:

(1) who you are, (2) where and when you were born, and (3) who your parents were. You may know (4) where and when they were born, and (5) you know who your children are, if you have them. That covers three generations of family, and will be a good deal of information to a later generation. But, it will perish with you unless you share it with others.

Write it down!

While traveling recently I saw a sign which said, "Life is uncertain, eat dessert first!" That should impress us with just how urgent making a written record is.

II. INTERVIEW RELATIVES--PARTICULARLY THE OLDEST SURVIVORS

Collect memorabilia--letters, documents, photographs, receipts, bills, military papers, etc. Something which appears now to have no value may later help to unravel a mystery. I recently was shown a bill, well over a hundred years old, from a general store. The family which had it appreciated it as a curiosity but had failed to learn anything from it. A few seconds examination showed it to be a list of items needed to begin housekeeping. A check of the date and place led unerringly to the previously unknown date and place of marriage of the great grandparents! The bill has been copied and is on the wall of the family home in an attractive frame.

III. MAKE USE OF PUBLIC RECORDS

These are amazing in scope, yet very vulnerable to destruction.

Abstract information from them, and encourage their preservation. Public records are available from the very earliest days of this country--even Colonial records. We know much about the very earliest settlements; e.g., St. Augustine, FL (1585), New Orleans & Natchitoches, LA (1719), Williamsburg, VA (1722) and Arkansas Post, AR (1819).

IV. PUBLIC RECORDS CONSIST OF:

A. CENSUS RECORDS

1790 - 1980, except 1890, plus special census enumerations
These are the backbone of genealogy

B. TAX RECORDS

1. Can be a kind of substitute census record
2. Can furnish a death date

C. MARRIAGE RECORDS

1. Early records required a surety bond. Can be clue to friends or relations.
2. Minister's name appears on Marriage Certificate.
3. Permission may have had to be granted by a parent.
4. May furnish clues to the religion of bride and/or groom.
 - a. Minister's affiliation may be significant.
 - b. Failure to return license for recording may indicate Quaker, Mennonite, or similar faith.

D. LAND RECORDS

Can reveal:
(1) neighbors
(2) wife's name
(3) dates of relocations
(4) family's financial status
(5) military service
(6) family groups

E. WILLS & PROBATE RECORDS

1. Wills can furnish names of family members and relationships, including in-laws.
2. Probates can tell a lot about how people lived, and who their friends and neighbors were. Estates were auctioned; records kept of what was sold, who bought it and for what price.

F. COURT RECORDS - CIVIL & CRIMINAL

Remember that 68,000 convicts were settled in this new country because British jails were full. Some ancestors had problems with each other and the laws in this country. If you discover an English or Irish convict in your family, he will probably also turn out to be a Revolutionary War soldier and you will be glad you found him.

G. MILITARY RECORDS

Every war which has ever been fought generated records in the U.S. National Archives, Washington, D.C. Yes, Indian Wars and Confederate records, too!

H. VITAL RECORDS

The are late and imperfect. For example, Arkansas did not require statewide registration of births and deaths until 1914 and many are still unregistered. South Carolina has required central registration only since 1942. Prior to that, the individual counties kept such records. Getting a birth certificate from South Carolina can still be a nightmare.

V. BIBLE RECORDS

Kept by many families, these notations are priceless. They are often the only vital records in existence for several generations. Have them microfilmed by the state agency responsible for history. In Arkansas, that is the Arkansas History Commission, 1 Capitol Mall, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201. Your Bible will be returned undamaged.

VI. CHURCH RECORDS

These are also substitute vital records and are much older, and often more complete, than official records. The burial record of one of my ancestors in Germany in 1700 includes the priest's notation that the man died by freezing!

VII. RECORDS IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Newspapers and other vertical files in public libraries contain notices which serve as vital records, and will more often than not include the place of a birth, or marriage, and the cause of a death. Much can also be learned about survivors of the dead ancestor and his occupation and religion.

VIII. MAPS

There are numerous sources for maps which will greatly enrich the story. Readily accessible sources are:

A. State universities

The University of Arkansas, Department of Agriculture, has for sale a marvelous map of the state's Old Trails, Roads & Landmarks.

B. History textbooks

C. Geography textbooks

D. Atlases

E. U.S. Geologic, or Coastal & Geodetic Survey

F. Corps of Engineers (especially good for streams)

G. Highway Departments

The Arkansas Highway and Transportation Department publishes a complete series of finely detailed county maps which show, among other things, every cemetery in the county, with milage notations from each intersection to bridges, other intersections and other landmarks. Even the individual houses are shown on the correct side of the road, as of the date of the cartography.

H. Genealogical Organizations

The Arkansas Genealogical Society has for sale a Township Atlas by Russell Baker picturing and giving a brief history of every township in every county in the state.

IX. RULES TO REMEMBER

A. Write it down!

Otherwise, it will be gone when you are--even when your memory fails.

B. Footnote it!

Give others a chance to read it where you read it. A name or date may have been misread and all will be assisted by a correction.

C. Share it!

Stay in touch with others who are are researching the same families and/or areas.

D. Preserve it!

Keep your records in the safest place possible. If practical at all, duplicate them and store them in more than one place. Providing copies to others serves this purpose to some extent.

Our genealogical records are too meaningful and precious for us to be careless with them.

Write it down--now!!

Ed Sanders submitted the above material which he used to speak from at the Wages Family Reunion this year. Both beginner and advanced researchers will benefit from this.

Thanks, Ed!

McDANIEL BIBLE RECORD

Submitted by Martha Taylor Houk, Rt. 4, Box 26, Greensburg, KY 42743, who stated: "My great grandmother Martha Francis McDaniel was born 13 Oct. 1838 in Saline Co., Benton, Ark. She left there in about 1844-1845 and came to KY with her mother, Nancy and new step-father, James P. Brewer. As far as I know, she never returned to Ark. as she died here in Green Co., KY, in 1913. Her father, George McDaniel, died in Benton, Ark. 20 Dec. 1830.

"The following record is in the family Bible which belonged to Martha F. McDaniel and has been handed down through the family and is in my possession now. I would like very much to hear from anyone who has any information on any of these people named and also from someone who is interested in early Saline Co., Ark., history."

William G. Black born Sun. 15 Sept. 1816

John L. Black born 29 Aug. 1818

John L. Black b. 1818 was also in Saline Co. Ark. 1835-1840.

Martha Frances McDaniel was known to all descendants and friends as "Grandmother Blakeman. Mrs. Houk says further: "Grandmother Blakeman was born in Ark. and left as a small child to come live in KY. I was named for her. Martha and I lived in Mississippi Co., Ark. 2 years (1973-1975) and left there with my husband and another "small child" - my daughter - to come "home" to KY and our home is on the same farm where Grandmother Blakeman and her husband lived and raised their family. So I feel a closeness to the State of Arkansas that is hard to explain. I traveled by car in 1975 when I left and crossed the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers at Cairo, Ill. I've often wondered what it was like for Grandmother when she left there 130 years before. How did they travel and where did they cross the River?"

If you have information on this family, please contact Mrs. Houk directly.

TEMPERANCE M. A. STANDRIDGE BOWEN WALKER

Submitted by Russell P. Baker 6525 Magnolia Dr., Mabelvale, AR 72103. Please contact Russell Baker if you have further information on this family.

Temperance M. A. Standridge Bowen Walker was born about 1836 in Habersham, now White County, Georgia. She was a daughter of Nancy P. and James Standridge. She married Frances M. Bowen, a son of Thomas and Eliza Beth Bowen, about 1854 in White County. Their first son, John H. Bowen, was born there in February 1855. Shortly after his birth, the Bowen family joined a large wagon train of some 60 individuals bound for the wilds of Arkansas from northern Georgia. Included in their number were members of the Abernathy, Bates, Dilbeck, Edwards, Goss, Vandivier, Walker and Standridge families. Most of the emigrants were from Cherokee, White and Habersham countiers. Many of their families were interrelated and most were members of the Baptist church. They settled in Polk, Montgomery and Scott counties in western Arkansas. They were followed later by still more members of their families. Frances M. Bowen purchased 40 acres of land near Big Fork in Montgomery County from his father-in-law for $100 in 1857. He sold it back to him for $400 in 1858. While in Arkansas, Frances M. and Temperance Bowen became the parents of a daughter, Nancy Ann Elizabeth, born in February of 1857. Soon after her birth the family left Arkansas. Their last son, William Oliver or "Olney", was born in Missouri in August of 1861. By 1870 Mr. Bowen was dead, and Temperance and her children were living in Big Fork Township, Montgomery County, Arkansas, with her father and mother. On November 14, 1875, Temperance married a family friend, Abraham Walker, a widower aged 55 who was a native of South Carolina and a member of the wagon train of the 1850s. He settled near Black Springs in Montgomery County where his first wife, Mary, died after 1870. Evidently Abraham and Temperance left Arkansas and moved to South Carolina soon after their marriage. Their first child, Sarah Walker, was born in that state in 1878. However, they returned to Arkansas shortly and settled in Lafayette Township, Scott County, where a son, Silas Walker, was born in 1879. Mr. Walker died about 1893 and Temperance moved back to Montgomery County where she homesteaded land at Alf where her father, who died in 1896, lived. Temperance died in December of 1901 having just won a law suit with a neighbor over a team of mules.

Of her children: John H. Bowen married Roseanna/Rosehanna Hutchinson about 1874 in Polk County; Nancy Ann Elizabeth Bowen married (1) Nathaniel B. Goss, and (o2) Abraham R. Bates; and William Oliver or "Olney" married (1) Annie Baren; (2) Cordela Farr; and (3) Ella Carter. Temperance M. A. Standridge Bowen is the great-great-great grandmother of the author.

The following is from the Orville Gillet Collection at the Arkansas History Commission, #1 Capitol Mall, Little Rock, Arkansas. It lists five families given permission to cross the Arkansas River at Norristown in Pope County on April 6, 1865, just before the end of the Civil War.

Signed by the order of D. W. Mason by Maj. Pound of Detach. 3rd Ark. Cav., it lists: Mr. Barnett McElwee and family
John Oals (Oats?) family
James Wells family
Mrs. Widow Carr's (?) family
Mrs. Woods' family.

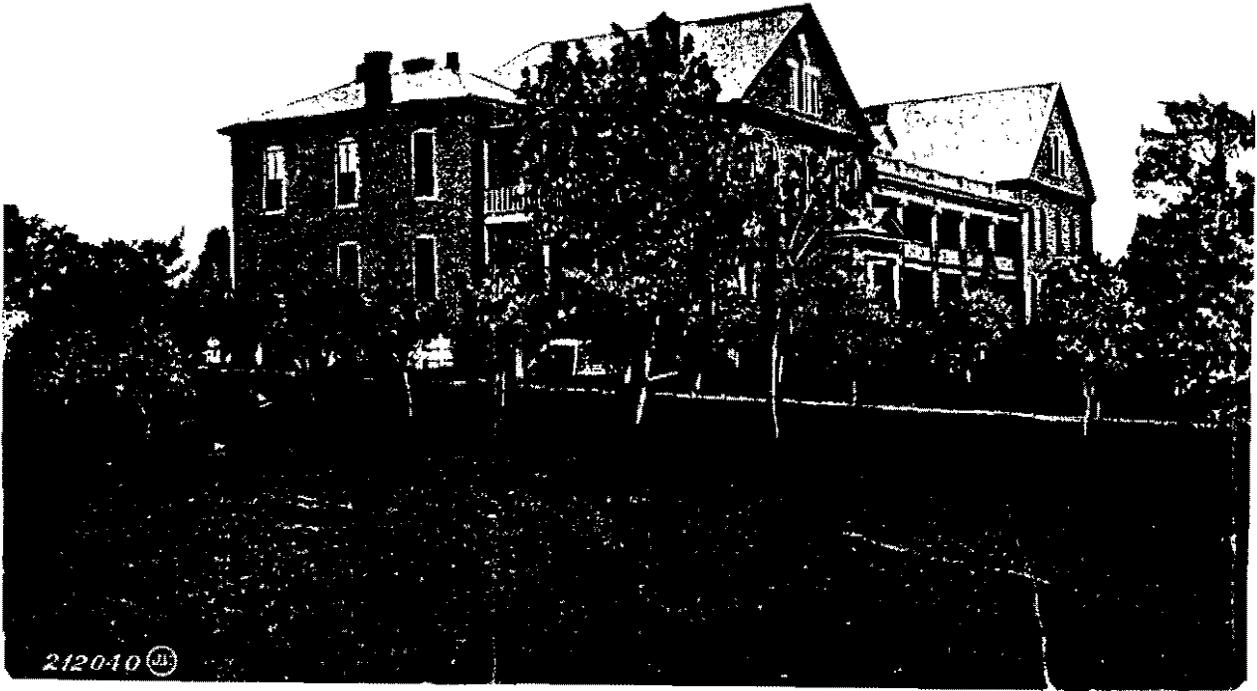

They were allowed to take with them 20 days worth of supplies plus clothing, bedding, cooking utensils and "teams to transport same".

Confederate Soldiers' Home, at Sweet Home, near Little Rock, Ark

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS HOME, LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

RECORDS OF MEN AND WOMEN WHO WERE
INMATES IN THE ARKANSAS CONFEDERATE HOME
Little Rock, Arkansas 1895 - 1953

Copies of these records may be ordered from the Arkansas History Commission, #1 Capitol Mall, Little Rock, AR 72201. Please write to them, and send SASE, for a price quote before ordering.

The ARKANSAS CONFEDERATE HOME was established in 1890 by a group of philanthropic citizens who formed the Ex-Confederate Association of Arkansas to care for the needs of indigent Confederate soldiers and their widows. They were John D. Adams, W. P. Campbell, John G. Fletcher, R. A. Little, and Thomas W. Steele. They purchased some 60 acres of land on what is now Dixon Road near Sweet Home south of Little Rock and opened a nursing home in a remodeled residence on December 1, 1890. In April of the next year, the Arkansas Legislature appropriated $10,000 annually for the upkeep of the Home and the Association deeded the property to the State. It became one of Arkansas' charitable institutions. A new building was constructed in 1892 and remodeled in 1911. By 1915 the institution housed 130 inmates. After that occupancy declined. In 1955 a new smaller Confederate Home was built on the grounds of the Schools for the Deaf and Blind in Little Rock. By 1961, with only eight inmates remaining, the legislature voted to close the Home and transfer the remaining patients to nursing homes. The Home was finally closed in 1963 and the building use transferred to the Blind and Deaf School.

ROBERT BLAIR DESCENDANTS

BLAIR NOTES FROM DECATUR ADVANCE

August 16, 1893: J. W. Blair is ahead now. He brought in a bunch of pea pods 2 feet 10 inches long, and some german millet 6 feet 11 inches tall. Jerry Truett says the land was a little thin where they grew, or they would have grown larger. The samples were taken to the fruit fair at Siloam Springs. Great in Arkansas.

September 6, 1895: J. W. Blair has a pear tree that bore 15 bushels of fine fruit this year.

September 27, 1895: J. W. Blair returned from his visit to Barren Fork, Tuesday.

J. W. Blair left us a generous supply of extra good eating apples this morning. They were the pearmore variety.

October 4, 1895: John Blair who has been time keeper for the contractor on the P & G Road at Barren Fork returned home last week. He expects to attend the A. I. U. at Fayetteville this winter.

November 15, 1895: Notice: J. W. Blair Notary Public - All kinds of Legal Papers made out and acknowledged - at Advance Office every Saturday afternoon.

January 24, 1896: J. W. Blair has it in the neck - a carbuncle. He complains of enjoying "heap much" agony.

March 13, 1896: J. W. Blair was listed as Secretary of Decatur Lodge No. 562.

June 19, 1896: John W. Blair came up from Fayetteville, Saturday and will spend vacation at home. He has many things to say about A. I. U. and intends to return in September.

November 27, 1896: Report of Decatur School. Report Cards:

	Arithmetic	Grammer	Geog.	Writing	Spelling	History	Psysiology
Maggie Blair	90	90	--	90	95	78	92
John Blair	90	89	--	72	95	63	88
Sam Blair	80	55	85	71	90

J. E. Thomas, Teacher

(This was listed as a subscription school.)

Item from the Decatur Herald: Thursday, october 30, 1969

Extract of obit of Samuel T. Blair: Residence at death - 2305 S. Drive, Anaconda, Montana. Death came six days before his 86th birthday. Born October 25, 1883, in Decatur, Arkansas. Received an engineering degree from the University of Arkansas in 1910. he was the first member of the Hall of Fame at the University of Arkansas, a member of Tau Beta Pi engineering society, and received a distinguished alumnus citation.

He had lived in Gary, Indiana, and in Arizona before moving to Anaconda 40 years earlier.

His wife, Mary, and several nieces and nephews survived. He was entombed in the Mt. Moriah Cemetery Mausoleum at Anaconda.

Note: J. W. Blair - James Washington Blair
John H. Blair - son of James W. Blair

November 15, 1881

Dear Father,

Yours came to hand and was glad to hear from you, but was very much disappointed in not getting any money. I had to borrow $50 to get some corn with. With the exception of you sending me some. Well about the wagon, I never told him if I did not pay it before I left I would leave enough in your hands to pay for it and he said that was all right. I want you to sell all the stuff I left there if you don't get half price for it and settle for the wagon and pay Mary Ann and send me the balance as soon as possible. As to John Williams, you will have to look to him for what you paid him for I did not promise to pay anything and will swear it. I wrote to Young and he tells me that he had no authority to go to you for anything. My things got here at last. If I had not got them I could not have made the road paid for them for a receipt from a depot agent is worth nothing after it leaves their road. I recon they were all right. One box was busted open. I don't think there was anything gone. You said you wanted me to give you a history of our travels. I cannot give you all in one letter, a portion of our trip was a rough one. Through Tennessee and Kentucky the roads were very rough with water plenty. We crossed the Ohio river the second Tuesday of our journey. Then we traveled in Illinois one week the most of it is a pretty country but it looked like starvation. They are not making much. Their feed and water was scarce and awful dusty. We crossed the Mississippi the Third Tuesday at Greens Old Ferry then we struck the roughest country I ever saw until we got to Springfield. There is some pretty country. The fourth Tuesday I got a passed going. It was at Salem, Mo. there I stayed one week and as soon as I was able to get out about we started. I got to stay in a mans house and slept on a mattress and he charged me $1.00 per day and the doctor charged me $10.50. It was at Old Moody Williams and Wash Shackletord's right there is where Morton stopped. It is the roughest place I ever saw but is good dust that is at Hartsville, Mo, 150 miles from here. We drove it in 5 days but it injured my mules. As to this state, this part of it is mity nice Bentonville is as nice a place as I ever saw. I live 3 1/2 miles from it. There is some rough country here when you get --- in the timber but the land is good of a good season it will bring from 60 to 75 bushel of corn to the acres. This year it will make 25 bu. Hardy had some that made 40 measured. Good land is going up fast. I missed it not coming here years ago. Hardy has one place I had rather have as any place in your valley that can be bought for 3000 and there is another place close to me that can be bought for $1000 that I had rather have as either of yours. This is an easy country to make a living in. You can sell a fat hog or cow any time of the year. June is the best market for hogs. They buy them and ship them to St. Louis, Mo. 335 miles from here. The railroad runs in 12 miles of here.

We are having some cold weather here now. I will quit for the present. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Your son as ever,

J. W. Blair

At Home
Bentonville, Ark.

Dear Old Father and Sisters:

As James is writing you I have concluded a few words from me would not come amiss; although separated hundreds of miles; and you and the girls are often present with me in my thoughts; and even in my dreams at night; yes often, very often, do I think of you all with much love and affection at heart. It is always a pleasant time with the children when I call them around my knees to talk to them about Grandpa and Tennessee. Mary says if Grandpa will send her his picture she will put it in her album and look at him once every day so she will be sure not to forget how he looks; I join her in saying be sure and send it without fail, also Mothers, I would love to have all the girls photographs and intend just as soon as I can make the money to get the children's pictures taken and send them to you. Well perhaps you would like to know something about how, and where we live, we live 3 1/2 miles west of Bentonville. The land that Jimmie will cultivate next year is very pretty in the edge of the timber with a spring and creek within 100 yards from the house, the house is built cottage style just one large room but we are situated very comfortably and have plenty of good coarse diet to live on together with a good aappetite makes it quite relishable. The children are all stout, well, and quite harty. Little Dannie is standing alone, and all of the children look well, since they recovered from the sore eyes we all had them in a few days after we arrived here.

Father, the farmers in this country are far ahead of the Tennesseans in cultivating the soil. It is not the number of acres they pride in but to make every foot of the soil profitable to them, 80 acres is considered a good farm, and 160 acres is considered a large farm, and the most of the farmers only have 40 acres, but it makes close neighbors, a good orchard all the year, handy to church, only 1 mile to a place called Center Point where there is a Cumberland and Methodist meeting once every month also a good sabbath school.

A near neighbor cleared something over 200 hundred dollars from his orchard this present year, besides the corn he had in it, and still he lives on a 40 acre farm with as nice a house as that one we left, also good out house and barn. It is the way they Manage and tend their land. Just like a garden spot and it is so level it cannot wash off is another great advantage they have.

Now about the thing they came all right after so long a delay I wish you would see Carmany about a little debt due me. I sent him 6 sweeping brooms and he owes me for them; and Billie was to pay me 7 1/2 cents apiece for 8 little guineas and 15 cents apiece for 3 grown ones making it in all $1.05 for the guineas. I will take it as a great favor if you will collect it and send it to me and if you can sell that churn dash also, these are little things but still I have to buy them again and have to have something to buy with.

Hoping to hear from you soon. I remain as ever, Your daughter

At Home - Arkansas

Dear Grandpa and Aunts,

As John and Pa was writing, I thought I would write some too. I am very well and hope you are well too. I am through my spelling book and half through it again, and have read almost all the reading. I am half through the first reader, McGuffey Reader. I am learning at home and do not go to school. Maggie is a very big girl and every body says she is the prettiest little girl they ever saw. She looks so stout and healthy. Ma is well all the time and does not have to lie in bed sick like she did in Tennessee.

Dannie is the prettiest, sweetest and the most mischievous little boy you ever seen. Sometimes he gets a big long switch and he runs all us children out of the house. I rite you he makes everybody stand around. He is never better pleased than when he and Mag is up on one of the miles riding to the barn, he will catch hold of Ma's dress and pull her to a chair and scream to her as loud as he can tittle, Mama, Tittie, and won't let her rest until she suckles him. He talks plainer than most children of 2 years old and is large of his age. Aunties I carry most of the water, wash the dishes, sweep and make up the trundle bed, and sometimes I get so tired I wish there was no dishes, especially when I have eaten a hearty dinner.

Oh! Aunt Nancy I had almost forgotten to tell you there is some of the prettiest wild flowers you ever seen. The woods is just full, thousands of moss like you have in boxes. It just grows wild all over the rocks, along the creek banks. If the seed can be gathered, I intent go gather some and send you some this fall.

Mama says write soon. It does her so much good to read a letter from you all. I will close. Much love to you all Dear Aunties and Dear Old Grandpa.

Write soon,

Mary K. Blair

My dear old Grandfather,

I thought I would write you a little letter to tell you how we are getting along, and to thank you for my Christmas present (I thank you with all my heart) and I intend to send you a present before long. I never intend to spend my quarter for any thing, but I had another quarter for which I invested in two hens, and now one of my hens is setting and I am trying to raise some chickens to sell; you may look out for your present some time this summer. I am over to Banquet in Sister Mary's spelling book. I have never had a spelling book, so I thought I would learn in Mary's book. I love to live out here. come to see us. Grandpa I held the pencil that wrote every word. Write to me soon. Now I send you a great big kiss. From your little boy

John H. Blair

P. S. How is your getting along. I have a pet turkey which I call Alexander, I love long names so thought that would do.

August 27, 1882

Dear Father and Sister,

Your letters all came to hand alright with the exception you did not put postage enough on the 2 registered ones. I offered to pay the balance on them but they said they would not receive it. Me and the Depty P.M. had a little jour over it, I have not seen the P.M. yet. he is not at home. It is laid over until he comes. I will talk to him about it you have the law how is it on registered package about the postage, can it be paid at the end of the route like other letters or does it have to be paid at the start?

Well I did not get the place I told you of. I was about closing it up when a Doctor, the best one here, told me there was milch sick on the place and advised me as a friend not to go there. I do not expect to get another such a bargain as it was but health is a great thing. I am on a trade with another man now for a place at $600 a number one place, fresh land, good buildings, but notmuch broke. I will buy somewhere here for it is impossible to rent good land. I like the place I spoke of last mity well. It is in a good neighborhood and close to school and healthy. If we trade, which I expect we will, I pay him half down and the other by the first of November. If you can send me the balance by then, I will be mity glad or if you can only send $200 dollars I will be mity glad. I can get the money out of the bank by paying 10% and keeping it 5 years or I can get it for less time but will have to pay more for it. Now I do not want you to think I am asking you for the money to spend. For I expect to get me a home and I expect every cent of money you send me to go into a home for I know there never was any one that wants a home of their own any worse than I do for I have got my satisfaction a moving. I never want to move but one time more. You can't buy a place in this country for less than $600 that is worth anything and you can't buy on time and if any one borrows the money the interest soon eats him up. I am well pleased with this country. I like the people better the more I get acquainted with them. I am as well satisfied as any one could be to be as far from their folks as I am. I hope to see you all again on earth. I can't help but think I will see you all again. I will make plenty of stuff to do me. This has been a hard year for us everything has been high but crops are fine. We have not thrashed the wheat yet. I only got 8 acres sowed but it was fine Mr. Woods says it will make 9 or 10 bushel to the acre. I get half my corn is fine. The best I ever raised. Corn will be worth nothing I have heard of some selling at 14 cents. There will be so much raised here.

Dear Father,

As I told you in my last letter about buying a place, I have bought it. The man will be here to fix up the deed on Monday. I am to pay him $300 down and $300 by the first of November. Now if you can send me the balance of the money I will be mity glad. I can have me a home that I can live on and live. It is a mity hard life to live on rented land in this country. You cannot get a house that is fit to live in. The house that I got is a good one and good land and fresh. I will give you a description of the place hereafter. I have got one of the nicest places in Benton County. The finest range in the State. The grass in the woods higher than your head, thousands of acres covered with it. The Post Master acted the raskell about those letters if you are put to any trouble I will tell him what I think of him.

This leaves us all well. Hope to hear from you soon.

Your son,

J. W. Blair

At Home, Ark. Oct. 1882

Dear Old Grandpa,

I was so glad to hear from you and to know that your arm is well. I sometimes dream of seeing you Grandpa, and being at your house, Mary, Maggie, and I all go to Center Point Church to Sabbath School every sabbath. My teacher is Mrs. Mattie Mays, one of the best, kindest and prettiest women you ever saw, she does not live very far from us, and sometimes I go up to see her; she has no little children to play with me, but she always has some pretty book or picture paper for me to look at which is nicer than play; I have been working some too, Grandpa. I have been helping Ma to gather her beans. She has gathered 3 bushels and is not half done yet. Old Coley has a fine nest full of baby pups, 11. We have give her and all the puppies away but one and I am going to keep one which I have named Watch. Grandpa I am nearly half through my reader and get a nice bib paper at Sunday School called the Sabbath School Visitor. Ma reads all the pretty pieces to me and when she is too busy to read Mary reads for me. Well Grandpa I went with Pa down to our new home that is where Pa bought some land, and I just wish you could see it. It is the prettiest place, it looks just like where we use to live in Tennessee. The house is up on a little hill. I think I will be so happy when we get to a home of our own. I have saved a half gallon of fine peach seed to plant me an orchard of peaches.

Grandpa I have had a heap of fun gathering hazle nuts and hickory nuts to eat this winter. Won't you come and help me eat them. Write soon Grandpa. I will count how many days till I get a letter. Every day will seem mighty long. I have wrote everything I can think of. Write me a great long letter as big as a book, for I make Ma read your little letters over so often I get them all by heart. So goodbye for this time and don't forget your little

Jonnie

October 8, 1882

Dear Father,

Yours came to hand and was glad to hear from you and to hear of your getting along so well. This leaves us all well. I have suffered a great deal with my spleen this fall, worse than common. I have taken medicine but it does no good. The medicine that Tat Blair gave me done me more good than any I have taken. I have no idea of ever getting over it. It has run on me so long. I have just got done sowing wheat. There are some wheat fields plum green now. I made 82 bushel off of 9 acres. Sowing corn is fine. I will make thousands to do me. I have done it all myself. Well you wanted to know about my place. It lies 12 miles west of where I now live, 15 1/2 miles from Bentonville, 5 miles from the nation line. There is a post office granted at a place 1 mile from it if we can get a P.M., will know in a short time.

I have 212 1/2 acres. A good house, smoke house, a good barn, and a good tobacco barn, an orchard of 50 to 100 acres, young trees, 25 acres in cultivation, a good fence, first class land and plenty to put in. Nothing to do only to fence as fine land as you ever saw. The land that is in cultivation and to put in will bring 50 to 75 bushel of corn to the acre any year. Well timbered and the finest range I ever saw. The grass now is green and as high as your head all over the woods for miles around government lands that will never be taken up. I have plenty of water, but it is unhealthy. I will have to dig a well.

The other half of the money is to be paid the first day of November. Now if you can send me the money I will be mighty glad. If you can borrow the money I am willing to pay you the interest. If I fail to get the money from you I will have to go to the bank and mortgage the place for the money. If I get it at 10 percent I will have to keep it 5 years and to get it a shorter time I will have to pay 15 percent. You know the rule of the bank, when it becomes due. Now if there is any possible chance for you to get me the money it will save me a great deal and then I will have a home. Write as soon as you get this and let me know. If you can get the money, start it so I can get it a few days before the first day of November. I will not move until I gather my corn. I have swaped it for corn. There the safest way to send it is to send a post office order. Send it to Bentonville.

My place is in a good neighborhood, close to school, and church. Preaching every Sunday in the year, a good Sabbath School.

I will close for the present, write as soon as you get this.

Your son,

J. W. Blair

Dear Father and Sisters,

Now that we are moved and fixed up to live again once more, I concluded we would write you a good long letter and give you a description of our new home and future prospects for a living; feeling assured if there is a true friend and one truly interested in our welfare that you and the girls are. In the first place I must say that I am well of dispepsia. I have not had an hours sickness nor taken one dose of medicine since we came to this State. I can eat what I wish and as much as I wish of any thing but I mostly use a vegetable diet with milk and butter. I do all my work, have never hired a single washing since here we have been, and more than that I worked out in the field in the truck patches a good part of the Summer, and just strengthened on it, you know with good health I can have some pleasure and without it there is not much pleasure to be felt. Mr. Blair is stout and harty, suffers less with headaches than any fall and winter since I knew him, the children are all well and harty.

Well, we live 15 miles nearly due west of Bentonville, 6 miles from the Indian Territory, 5 miles from the famous Eldorado all healing Springs, 3 miles from Mothers and 1 1/4 from Jonnies Cottons. We have as good pure freestone water as ever run out of the earth and no end to the timber and range for sheep, hogs and cattle. I call the place a very pretty place and a spendid neighborhood and some as fine bottom land as ever you saw, to clear if we still continue to all have good health there is nothing in the world to hinder us from doing well and laying by a competinsy for old age. This is a great country for cattle, it one has the capital to buy a few head of sucking calves they live from March until November on the range and cost very little and in one year or two at the fartherest, you clear 3 times what you have invested with but little cost and comparatively no labor. There was fruit in great abundance this year, in this country there is a New York Company came to Bentonville and put up a Drying factory that consumed 300 bushels of fruit per day; one day with a nother for more than 2 months and still there was thousands of bushels of fruit left. I dried plenty and more than enough to do us for 12 months, but have green fruit plenty yet. There is a fine young orchard ukp on this place old enough to be bearing the coming year. There is some orchards here in this county of 100 acres bearing fruit. I thought I had seen some right fine fruit in Tennessee but to tell you the plane truth I never saw fruit before, it surpasses all I have ever seen for fine flavor, size and quantity. The children wants me to write some for them. Mary says to tell her Aunts that she picked dried beans and sold enough to buy her a worsted dress, and concluded me would not make up the one you gave her until she is a little older. I have made John a nice new Jeans coat and lined it all over with linsey. He is all right for jack frost. Maggie and Dannie are as fat as pigs. Dannie can talk as good as a 6 year old child and still sucks. He will be 2 years old 14 day of January 1883, the other day some one was teasing him for sucking and he got down out of my lap and took hold of my hand and said, let's go in the kitchen and get titty, my good Mamma, the children are still very attentive to their books, Mary says she has read that chapter 2 times and thinks that the preacher must have seen a great deal of folly in this world to explain everything as vanity, vanity. Write me a great long letter Grandpa and tell me what you think. If I could see you I could talk more than I could write in a month. Come out to see us you and some of the girls or all of them. If Jane would come I believe she would be stout again, excuse bad writing for Dannie is at my elbow punching me for the pencil, write me all the news far and near. Hoping this may find you all well and in good spirits, I remain as every your true friend. Write soon. I will think the time long for your letter.

H. A. Blair

P.S. Girls, please write me how to make Calico and worsted dresses in Tennessee. I do not like the fashions here, write how to make them for children.

December 11, 1882

Dear Grandpa:

As Pa is writing I thought I would write you a little letter. I wish you all a "Merry Christmas" with all my heart. I am well pleased with our new home, we have plenty of Green apples and hickory nuts and Chinkapins yet come and help us to eat them and Mary and I will go home with you and spend New Years day with you. Ma has some big turkeys if we can persuade her to kill one for Christmas. Maggie and Dannie and Mary and I all send you a big KISS

From John and Mary

Dear Father,

I received your long looked for letter and was glad to hear from you and to hear of your health improving. This leaves us all well. My general health is better than it has been. I have a mity bad finger. I mashed my middle finger on my right hand about a month ago and caught cold in it and I have suffered a great deal with it - but it is getting better but a bad finger yet. I moved the 9th of November. I am well pleased. The title is all right the land that the house and barn including 160 acres and the title came from the government and the other 52 1/2 acres was land that belonged to an old man that died about 1 year ago. He was one of the first settlers of the country. It was sold for division and the deed was made to the man that I bought off by the court. I gathered my corn. I made 900 bushel, 600 bushel to my part. Corn is worth 25c bushel. The man that lived on my place this year gathered 75 bushel per acre on the part of the land he had in.

You spoke of that business. I just leave it with you if you think that Cousin Jim will attend to it for me and not charge me all for it. Send me a copy of a power of attorney or get him to and I will fix it up. The Laws of this State and Tennessee are different and I do not want to go to the expense but once. Please see or write to him as soon as you get this. If there is any money there, I would like to have it as soon as I can get it. My house is not sealed yet. It is a new one just weatherboarded. It is not sealed around the sides and of course it is not comfortable yet when it is cold and the wind blows and that is pretty often. We have had 2 northers this winter, the only ones I ever saw. It was warm enough that I could go without my coat and in a half hour it was cold enough to freeze the horns off a muley cow. The last _____ that came I was 13 miles from home and came home in the time of it. They both came up about dark and lasted until the next evening. You never saw the wind blow so in March in Tennessee. I have not changed my Post Office yet for we will have an office in a mile of us in a month if nothing happens. As my hand is giving out I will quit. See to that business for me and write soon.

As ever your son,

J. W. Blair, Bentonville, Ark.

The Blair letters will be concluded in the March, 1988, issue of The Arkansas Family Historian.

We regret to learn that Mrs. J. A. Hodges has been quite sick during the past week.

Mrs. J. H. Hamiter and two little daughters returned from a pleasant visit to relatives at Little Rock Monday night.

Postmaster Nance has been confined at home with sickness for a number of days. We are glad to learn that he is much better.

Mr. M. H. Trimble will likely move from Texarkana to his residence recently purchased from Mrs. Ella Bacon, at Lewisville, next week.

Mr. Wm. M. Crocker of Pocahontas, Tenn., a cousin to our Mr. John Crocker, visited our town this week. He is traveling for a St. Louis firm.

Mrs. Will Browning, of Georgetown, Ky., who is on a visit to relatives at Magnolia, spent last Monday with Mrs. Clarence Walker, of this place.

Miss Alice Grubb, a popular young lady of Magnolia who has been making a pleasant visit to the Misses Boone, at Lewisville, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Ella Cargill, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. McCarthy for some time, to the regret of many friends here left for her home in Marshall, Tex. last Monday.

Mr. J. C. Atkinson and family have moved from an old town to his residence in this place, formerly occupied by Mr. Z. Burt, who has moved his family to the old Boyd residence on Second Street.

An account of the lecture of Ex-Governor Robert Taylor, at Camden, Ark., January 17, 1895, the Cotton Belt will sell round trip tickets from New Lewisville at $2.10. Tickets on sale January 17th, good to return January 18th.

Mrs. Ben Graves, of Arkana, was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Doc. Tatom, at Sardis, last Wednesday. Mrs. Tatom is very low with little hope of recovery.

An account of lecture of Ex-Governor Robt. Taylor at Texarkana, January 28th, the Cotton Belt will sell round trip tickets from New Lewisville at $1.15. Tickets on sale January 18th, limited to return January 19th.

Mr. Linwood Lee, formerly doing a family grocery business on First Street, has sold the remainder of his stock to Messrs. Lester-McCants Mercantile company and the James M. Houston Grocery company and retired from business.

Judge C. N. Maryman, having completed the usual routine business of the county court, returned home Wednesday. Court has been adjourned until the 18th of February; it will then convene for the purpose of receiving and cancelling county scrip.

Mr. W. W. Shirey, the son of Mr. B. C. Shirey, of this place, arrived from Memphis a few days since and will make his home here. He is engaged in reading law in the office of Messrs. King and Searcy. He is an intelligent, affable young gentleman and we welcome him as a citizen of New Lewisville.

Misses Hattie Hicks and Neddie Mulkey left for Little Rock on Monday night. As before announced, Miss Hicks is a candidate for enrolling clerk of the House of Representatives. Her former experience in that position, and extensive acquaintance with her great popularity, make her prospects for re-election most flattering.

Mrs. M. V. Hepp closes her school and goes to Camden, Ark., the coming week. We sincerely regret the loss to our town of such a talented lady and able educator, and the Recorder, to which she has so often contributed, sustains no small loss when she surrenders her citizenship here.

The above items were taken from LAFAYETTE RECORDER, dated Saturday, January 12, 1895, donated by Mrs. Gloria T. Thomas to the Lafayette County Historical Society.

Our thanks to Mrs. Thomas and to Mrs. Hollis for sharing this material with our members.

BOOK REVIEWS AND NOTICES

Bobbie J. McLane, Russell P. Baker and Desmond W. Allen

The following are reviews and/or announcements of book acquisitions for the Arkansas Genealogical Society. These books are permanently housed in the Local History and Genealogy Room of the Little Rock Public Library. The Society expresses its appreciation to the authors and contributors.

UNDERTAKER'S RECORDS 1916-1928: ASHBY FUNERAL HOME RECORDS (BENTON, AR) by Shirlene M. Chilton, 58+ pages, paper, index. Order from Saline Co. History and heritage Society, P. O. Box 221, Bryant, AR 72022-0221, $13.75. Since the organization of the Saline Co. History and Heritage Society in 1986, a number of excellent books have been published on Saline County. One of the best so far is Shirlene M. Chilton's transcription of the records of the Ashby Funeral Home in Benton from 1916 to 1928. The records have the date of the funeral, the name of the deceased, the cemetery buried in and additional information about the size of the casket, "1/9 are usually children who had died at birth", etc. Shirlene has also abstracted a number of obituaries from the files of the BENTON COURIER that relate to people listed in the undertaker's record. A complete index concludes the volume. Proceeds from the sales of this book are to be donated to the Saline County History and Heritage Society. RPB

THE DELCOUR ROAD Nicholas B. Delcour and his Descendants 1780-1987., compiled by Bill and Mary Delcour, 310 pp, paper, index. Published by the authors, whose address is 3739 Oakes Dr., Hayward, CA 94542. The Delcour Road has not been prepared for sale, but for sharing with the 160 "cousins" who have assisted in research and for donation to historical and genealogical societies. The book covers over 2900 descendants of Nicholas B. Delcour, beginning with his birth in France, migration through Belgium and Canada to New York, enlisted in the US Army in 1812, to Carondelet and then Washington Co., MO, where he spent the rest of his life. It gives a brief picture of the lives of his children and his children's children for up to eight generations. BJM

The following book was a gift from Dr. Marion S. Craig, a former President of the Arkansas Genealogical Society, who has shared a great number of books with us. THE BYERS FAMILY OF WASHINGTON CO., PENNSYLVANIA by Raymond Martin Bell, with an introduction by Marion Stark Craig, 40 pp, soft-cover, index. Order from Raymond M. Bell, 413 Burton Ave., Washington, PA 15301. $7.00. Dr. Bell's monograph concerns the family of Samuel Byers, Sr., and wife, Jane White, who settled in 1777 in the part of Washington Co, PA that was then Ohio Co., VA. it contains recently discovered information primarily from an 1893 Commemorative Biographical Record of Washington Co., PA by Beers of Chicago, and concerns the family whose record was published in 1877 by Dr. Craig entitled: BYERS-BONAR-SHANNON AND ALLIED FAMILIES. The book contains, in addition to the Byers material, information on the families of Lawson, Munn, Hipp, Hawkins, Ramsey, Shannon, with Wilson Connections in Washington Co. and Elsewhere by Dr. Craig. BJM

SCOTTISH COALMINING ANCESTORS, by Lindsay S. Reeks, 292 pp, hard cover, index, illustrated. Order from Lindsay S. Reeks, 2013 Wesrover Drive, Pleasant Hill, CA 94523 $25.00, plus $1.50 for domestic postage and packing and $2.00 for foreign (California residents add $1.72 sales tax).

This volume covers over 30 years research in the records of coalmining parishes of Scotland in the counties of Midlothian, Fife, West Lothian, East Lothian, Lanark and Sterling, the counties of Northumberland and Durham in England, and a few areas of Australia. The families include Anderson, Archibald, Black, Boyd, Brown, Cheyne, Crawford, Cunningham, Fleucker, Jack, Johnston, King, Lindsay, Lourie, Miller, Moffat, Neilson, Pentland, Porteous, Reid, Robertson, Russel, Smith, Steel, Walker, Williamson, Wilson and others. Each line, treated alphabetically, is fully documented with sources used. BJM

MARRIAGES OF SOME AMERICAN RESIDENTS AND GUIDE TO DOCUMENTS, VOLUME V, compiled and published by Yates Publishing Co., P.O. Box 237, Ozark, MO 65721, 222 pp, paper, alphabetical listing by husband and separate alphabetical listing by wife. (Subscription $8.00). The majority of marriages in this fifth volume are from family group sheets and pedigree charts received through the "Family Group Sheet Exchange", during the fourth quarter of 1986. The year and state of birth are included if known. In almost every instance, additional data can be found in the documents from which the marriages have been gleaned, often the names of parents or children. In most cases it is possible to contact compilers of the charts by looking up addresses in the "Numerical List of Documents" submitted to Yates Publishing Co. BJM

BICENTENNIAL TAPESTRY OF THE YELLOWSTONE CONFERENCE, compiled by Doris Whithorn, 510 S. 8th, Livingston, MT 59047, 211 pp., hard cover, $15.00. The Bicentennial Committee of the Yellowstone Conference of the United Methodist Church, covering all of Montana and parts of Wyoming and Idaho, published this volume, which includes 2200 biographical sketches of ministers who served the area - a compilation made by Roberta B. West, formerly of Chinook, MT. Profusely illustrated, it also includes church histories, conference structures, work of the women, camp histories and youth organizations. It is a remarkable aid for those seeking information in this area. BJM

CLARK COUNTY, (AR) CEMETERY RECORD BOOK, published by a Committee for Extension Homemakers Council, 500 pp, plus unnumbered pages of full index, hard cover. Order from Clark Co. Extension Homemakers Council, 400 Crittenden St., Arkadelphia, AR 71923, $30.00 plus $3.00 for mailing. (This is a sale price to clear out about three dozen books left in stock. The money from the sale of these books will be used to furnish the Extension Homemakers kitchen.)

Transcriptions from tombstones in more than 150 cemeteries in Clark Co., AR, were copied by Extension Homemakers Club members, originally in 1968, and finished in 1982. Because of the age of many markers and the handwritten lists that were turned in, they readily admit that there are some unavoidable mistakes either in dates or spelling of those names difficult to read; however, this volume is a welcome addition to our historical and genealogical records for Clark, one of the oldest counties in the State, created in 1818. It comprised roughly all of the present Clark, Hot Spring, Garland, Pike and Dallas Counties. BJM

MAGNESS MIGRATION 1793 - 1986, compiled by Verna A. Magness, Rt. 3, Box 158, Harrison, AR 72601, 114 pp., plus unnumbered index pages, soft cover, $25.00.

The earliest records of Magness' in America were in the 1733 Maryland State papers in Prince Georges County on a list of personal names for taxables -

Peregrin Mockness. This book chronicles members of the Magness family in Maryland, Pennsylvania, North and South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee and into Arkansas. It is somewhat difficult to follow, but appears to contain much genealogical information, particularly those in Independence and Marion Co., AR. BJM

MARRIAGES OF SOME AMERICAN RESIDENTS AND GUIDE TO DOCUMENTS, VOLUME III, compiled and published by Yates Publishing Co., P. O. Box 237, Ozark, MO 65721, softcover, 240 pp. $8.00. This is the third volume of a series devoted to the indexing of American marriages collected from pedigree charts, family group sheets, letters, Bible records, biographies, and other sources. Each of these volumes contains some 20,000 names and should be of value as another source of early marriage data and, through its list of document sources, as a means of contacting other researchers with related interests. On the negative side, the book of necessity takes a somewhat scatter-gun approach, covering the entire nation over a broad time frame. As a result, the chances of finding one particular elusive marriage are somewhat limited. You may order photocopies of documents, including pedigree charts, from the publisher. BJM

MARRIAGES OF SOME AMERICAN RESIDENTS AND GUIDE TO DOCUMENTS, VOLUME IV, compiled and published by Yates Publishing Co., P. O. Box 237, Ozark, MO 65721, 213 pp., paper, alphabetical listings by both husbands and wives, $8.00. Continues with parents listed on a portion of the collection of family group sheets. The book is columnar, listing document, page, type code (i.e., article, biographical sketch, correspondence file, pedigree chart, etc.). BJM

SEVIER COUNTY, ARKANSAS 1890 "CENSUS" RECONSTRUCTED FROM TAX RECORDS, by Vinita Lovell Long, Martha Johnson and Mary McGrory. 83 pp., and includes unnumbered index pages, soft cover, velo bind, $12.00. Order from Mary C. McGrory, Rt. 1, Box 58, DeQueen, AR 71832. This volume adds to the Sesquicentennial project originated by the Arkansas Genealogical Society of reconstructing the 1890 Census of Arkansas, and includes the information taken from the Sevier Co. Tax Books 1885-1891. An additional "Comments" column was added with the 1890 taxpayers' names were compared with the 1880 Census typescript. BJM

PARACLIFTA; FOUR DECADES GLIMPSED, by Mary C. McGrory, Rt. 1, Box 58, DeQueen, AR 71832, 18 pp, soft cover, velo bind, $5.00. POLK COUNTY NEWSPAPER "CLIPS", VOLUME ONE, by Shirley "Gypsie" Cannon, P.O. Box 683, Mena, AR 71953, soft cover, velo bind, index, $15.00. A compilation of personal columns in the local Polk Co. newspapers, dating mostly 1904-1914. However, many are dated as far back as the beginning of the paper in 1896, and as far forward as 1926. There were many newspapers in the Polk Co. area but the best known and the one used most in this record was THE MENA STAR. BJM

SEVIER COUNTY, ARKANSAS DESCRIPTIVE LISTS SOLDIERS' FAMILIES IN 1863, by M. C. McCrory, Rt. 1, Box 58, DeQueen, AR 71832, soft cover, 52 pp, indec, $6.00. This "descriptive list" of needy families is dated 1863, listing the name of the soldier, where he enlisted, in what unit he served, whether in service, dead, or discharged, names of his family, with ages, and relationship to the soldier. An excellent research tool to locate individuals who might be missed in both the 1860 and 1870 Sevier Co., AR, census. BJM

FULTON COUNTY, ARKANSAS FOLKS 1890-1893, by Desmond Walls Allen, P. O. Box 303, Conway, AR 72032, and Henryetta Walls Vanaman, soft cover, 137 pp., arranged alphabetically, $15.00. "Fulton Folks", another volume from the prolific compiler, Desmond Walls Allen, is a part of AGS' project to "reconstruct" the missing 1890 Federal Census reports. The ideal source, personal property tax books, were not available for Fulton Co., so alternate material was located. This book contains 3,480 names of individuals taken from: the 1893 Voter's List of Fulton Co.; Delinquent Personal Property Tax Books 1890, 1891 and 1892; Justice Court Books covering 1890-1893, and Indictment Record Book for 1890-1893. SWANTNER AND SIC FAMILIES, a Czech Genealogy, by Robert and Coleen Swantner, hard cover, 154 pp, index, price not quoted, may be ordered from Coleen M. Swantner, 1800 B West Lane, Kerrville, TX 78028. This book covers the descendants of these two families and would be a good reference for others interested in their Czech ancestry. Chapter III deals with the interesting life in and around the Slovak community, Prairie Co., AR, which drew settlers from the Midwest and which was promoted by John Kocourek, whose descendants still live in the Hazen area. THE MOVERS, The Heartland Chronicles, by Nancy N. Baxter, 516 pp., soft cover, $7.95 at Waldenbooks, or may be ordered at $7.95 (+$1.50 for mailing) from the author, Nancy Baxter at Guild Press Indianapolis office, 6000 Sunset Lane, Indianapolis, IN 46208. This novel deals seriously with the subject of genealogy and brings to life the lives of real people in a vivid way. The Movers is the story of the massive immigration of the Scotch Irish into the Ohio River Valley in the 18th Century. It is based on actual families' lives as they intertwined with religion, the Revolutionary War, the beginning of the War of 1812 and the Battle of Tippecanoe. The book follows the fortunes and misfortunes of John McClure and his descendants as they travel from Ireland, to Pennsylvania, to Kentucky, to Indiana. Mrs. Baxter has used the original records, interpreted carefully and painted an interesting, at times compelling, picture of Midwestern Indian life. She tells a good story, enticing the reader's interest while giving a very palatable dose of heartland history. BJM

GENEALOGY of the BLANDING FAMILY with Blanden, Blandin, Blandon, by Leonard Clark Blanding, P. O. Box 1078, Grand Rapids, MI, 431 pp., soft cover, 6 x 9, indexed, $25.00. This volume traces the American line from William Blantine along with those of other Blanding/Blanden/Blandin/Blandon families whose connection must be assumed but is as yet unproven. The result is an extensive collection of data that should be valuable to researchers with an interest in the subject family. References are extensive, although frequently secondary evidence. Researchers should not attempt to use this work without having first read the author's explanation of his file code system and system of references.

1840 SALINE COUNTY, ARKANSAS, CENSUS by Carolyn Earle Billingsley, Daline Research, 270 Midland Road, Alexander, AR 72002. This book contains a complete transcription of the 1840 census of Saline County, AR, including the number of slaves and the number of people over the age of twenty who could not read or write in each household. The page numbers of the original census are given, as are the population totals for each township and the entire county. Also included is a list of slaveowners in the county, a list of people who appear on both the 1840 Saline County census and the 1830 Pulaski County census (Saline County was formed from Pulaski County in 1835), a short history of the evolution of Saline County and an 1836 muster roll of Saline County men. Since the 1840 Saline County census is so difficult to read on microfilm, this should make a welcome addition to the bookshelf of Saline County researchers. Full name index, 25 pp., 8-1/2 x 11, softcover, $7.25 postpaid, order from the compiler.

LEGENDS OF THE HADDOCK FAMILY, by Hugh and Orpha Haddock, 1976. John Haddock, Sr., was born about 1720, married Miss Liscom, and reared his family in Pitt Co., NC. This book contains a list of descendants of John Haddock and stories about early Haddocks in America. Genealogical statistical information has been supplemented with colorful items about the lives of Haddock descendants. The authors' son has arranged to donate copies of the book to genealogical and historical libraries throughout the nation. Full name index, 344 pp., 5-1/2 x 8-1/2, hardbound, $20.00 postpaid, order from Gerald H. Haddock, 339 E. Jefferson, Wheaton, IL 60187. DWA

MARRIAGES OF BENTON COUNTY, ARKANSAS 1860-1877, by Verba Jo Pearce and Gail Scott, 1978. These records were transcribed from Marriage Book A of Benton County, the oldest extant records. Marriages of more than 4,500 persons are listed, showing date, names of bride, groom and officiating officer, and in some cases the ages of the couple are shown. Page numbers from the original book are included, and the compilers have done an excellent job of transcribing the material, obvious errors and all. A list of ministers' credentials with dates and page number follows the chronological record of marriages. Residences of the individuals when other than Benton County, are listed, and they include Barry, Greene, Lawrence and McDonald Counties in Missouri, Madison and Washington Counties in Arkansas, and the Cherokee Nation. This represents a valuable addition to printed material available on northwest Arkansas. Surname Index with cross references to similar spellings, 140 pp., 8-1/2 x 11, softbound, published 1987, $17.50 postpaid, order from Northwest Arkansas Genealogical Society, P. O. Box K, Rogers, AR 72757. DWA

THE LAST TARHEEL MILITIA 1861 - 1865: The History of the North Carolina Militia and Home Guard in the Civil War, and Index to Over 1,100 Militia Officers, by Gerald Wilson Cook, Commander, U. S. Navy, Retired. 1987. In addition to the alphabetized list of names of over 1,100 militia officers (Confederate) from 13 northwest North Carolina counties, many letters from the North Carolina Adjutant General's Letter Book, relevant to the counties covered, are included, as are lists of militia officers by county. The counties covered are Ashe, Alexander, Alleghany, Davidson, Davis, Forsyth, Iredell, Rowan, Stokes, Surry, Watauga, Wilkes and Yadkin. Commander Cook also presents a history of militia in ancient times, Europe, Colonial America and its development in the United States. His information is most enlightening and contributes to a clear understanding of the organization and functions of a militia. This book covers an often overlooked group of military records and should be helpful to genealogists and military historians alike. Surname/Subject/Place Index, Excellent Bibliography, Photos, Illustrations, 190 pp., 8-1/2 x 11, softcover, $18.00 postpaid, order from the author at P. O. Box 10811, Winston-Salem, NC 27108. DWA

SOME OF THE MANY BRANCHES OF THE GREENWELL FAMILY TREE, by Marion Elizabeth Greenwell Burgelin, 1984. Wheeler Printing and Publishing, Inc. This family history traces male descendants of nine primary Greenwell lines. The author's personal line is that of James and Anastatia Greenwell of Hardin and Nelson Counties in Kentucky. Original documents and sources of information are cited in the material and illustrations and photos enhance the text. A GENEALOGICAL RECORD OF WILLIAM BROWN AND DESCENDANTS, compiled in 1905 by W.H. Taylor, Revised in 1978 with Supplement and New Index by Mary E. Hayslett, Gateway Press. William Brown and Christiana Thompson Brown came to America in 1772 and settled in western Pennsylvania. Their children were George, William, Christiana, Margaret and Anna. The Brown daughters married Andrew McCaslin, Samuel Barber and Neil Murray, respectively. In addition to a list of descendants of this Brown family, there is a separate list of family members who were soldiers (through the Spanish-American War) and a chart of the first three generations. Fullname index, 180 pp., 5-1/2 x 8-1/2 hardbound, contact Mrs. Hayslett at 2121 Columbia Pike #302, Arlington, VA 22204 regarding availability. DWA

FROM VIRGINIA WITH LOVE by Thomas E. Barton, parts I and II, Revised and Condensed 1986. Part I is a record of William M. Hightower and his family who moved from Virginia to Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma. Part II is about the Spottswood, West, Hightower, Trammell, Dandridge, Allen, Terrell, Creilly (Greely) and Barton families whose descendants eventually settled in Indian Territory. This book packs a great deal of interesting family information, photos, charts and illustrations into 126 pages. 5-1/2 x 8-1/2, softcover, write Thomas E. Barton, 1418 N. ARKANSAS' DAMNED YANKEES, An Index to Union Soldiers in Arkansas Regiments, by Desmond Walls Allen, P.O. Box 303, Conway, AR 72032. 220 pp., softcover, $22.00 postpaid. This book contains information about 9,203 Union soldiers who served in Arkansas Regiments during the War Between the States. The information was taken from the Compiled Service Records of Volunteer Union Soldiers who Served in Organizations from the State of Arkansas, and includes the soldier's name as it appears on the jacket envelope, his unit, company, rank in and out, the date and place of his enlistment, his age at the time of enlistment, and his reported place of birth. The volume also includes an Index to Miscellaneous Card Abstracts, and an Index to Miscellaneous Personal Papers listing records which the Compiled Service Record project workers apparently felt did not seem to fit into particular service records for one reason or another. This new book, from one of our most active publishers of Arkansas material, is a valuable new source for researchers, both genealogical and historical, in Arkansas. Ms. Allen has also included information for ordering these records from both the National Archives and the Arkansas History Commission. BJM

TURNBO'S TALES OF THE OZARKS: BIOGRAPHICAL STORIES, by Desmond Walls Allen, P. O. Box 303, Conway, AR 72032, 185 pp., softcover, $18.00 postpaid. Silas Claborn Turnbo wrote a series of marvelous tales about the people, places and events of the early history of the Ozark region in Arkansas and Missouri. His stories, states the editor, form a sort of "Pocahontas's Goodspeed History of the Ozark Region." There is an amazing amount of genealogical information in them besides the entertainment value. This is the first book in a series which will contain hundreds of tales Turnbo wrote about his childhood experiences, war related experiences, and interviews with old settlers. He visited graveyards and historical sites and corresponded with folks who related their memories of old time to him. The stories appear to have been written prior to 1906, and some were published in newspapers in northern Arkansas and southern Missouri. This series will be an important addition to the history of this region of our State. BJM

MARRIAGE RECORDS 1825-1900 HOT SPRING COUNTY, ARKANSAS, published by the Hot Spring County Historical Society, P. O. Box 674, Malvern, AR 72104, softcover, $12.00. Each of the earliest Marriage Books, A, B, C and D, have been copied and indexed by surname separately at the end of each book. Additional records in the Probate Books, known as the Justice of the Peace Docket, were also researched and added. A complete index for all the records would have enhanced the usefulness of this book which is, however, well done and has been certified as true copies of the originals by the County Clerk of Hot Spring County. It should probably be noted that the marriage records contained in the first three of these five books copied for this publication, those from 1825 through May 1881, were transcribed and published in 1970 by Bobbie Jones McLane, in one volume with grooms names listed alphabetically and a complete bride name index. The volume published by the Historical Society, however, contains the additional marriages performed after May 1881 through 24 April 1899. DWA

REBELLION AND REALIGNMENT, Arkansas' Road to Secession, by James M. Woods, 277 pp., hard cover, index. Order from The University of Arkansas Press, Fayetteville, AR 72701, $18.00 plus $1.50 handling fee. Out of the Arkansas archives comes a phase of history never before told, along with findings that are pertinent to the modern social scene. Arkansas, the Old South's last frontier, was forced, after the election of Lincoln, to face the issue of secession. A decade earlier, the state had spurned all efforts from within to withdraw from the Union, but the following ten years drew Arkansas deeper into the economic and cultural community that bound it to the other slaveholding states. The question was asked on street corners, in offices, barbershops and living rooms: Would Arkansas leave the Union? Answers to that question caused a geographical realignment of politics in Arkansas during the winter of 1860-61. The author focuses upon the resulting social, economic and geographic divisions that grew within our State before and during the secession crisis. He captures the political struggles of the state as it tore away from the nation, and as it threatened in so doing, to tear itself apart. BJM

ANNOTATED 1860 CENSUS OUACHITA CO., ARKANSAS, by Bobbie J. McLane, Arkansas Ancestors, 222 McMahan Drive, Hot Springs, AR 71913, 1987. This book contains not only a complete transcription of Ouachita County Federal Census reports for 1860, but is annotated extensively from several other sources: cemetery records, Goodspeed, notes from the files of the late Mrs. Pauline Jones Gandrud, records from surrounding counties, and 1850 Federal Census reports. The alternate title for this work could be "All You Ever Wanted to Know About the Folks in 1860 Ouachita County." The very poor quality of the original census microfilm further enhances the value of this compilation. Researchers of Nevada County, Arkansas, will also be interested in this material as part of Ouachita County contributed to the creation of Nevada County in 1871. Surname Index, 130 pages, soft cover, 8-1/2 x 11, $18.00 postpaid. Available from the compiler at the above address. DWA

ALONG THE ROAD TO GLORY, A Compilation and Biography of the Soldier, Company and Regiment of the confederate Army from Saline County, Arkansas, by Anthony C. Rushing, 1985. Over 1,300 men from the 1860 Saline County Federal Census Reports are listed in alphabetical order in the first part of this book with their ages, townships and page numbers from the census reports. Each man's rank, company and regiment is listed as well. The second part of the book lists the regiments and companies in which the Saline County soldiers served with information about each unit and an alphabetical list of men with notes from their service records. There is an 1860 map of Saline County and several War Between The States battlefield maps. Garland and Grant Counties were created partially from Saline County after the war and researchers of those counties should also profit from this book. Proceeds from this printing of Mr. Rushing's book have been contributed to the Saline County History and Heritage Society, Inc. Bibliography, 103 pages, soft cover, 8-1/2 x 11, $14.25 postpaid, available from the Society, P. O. Box 221, Bryant, AR 72022. DWA

THIS COMPLETES QUERIES RECEIVED TO DATE OF PREPARATION OF THE SEPTEMBER/DECEMBER
1987 ISSUE OF THE ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN. THIS HAS BEEN SUCH A POPULAR
FEATURE OF OUR QUARTERLY THAT WE HAVE HAD, OF NECESSITY, TO LIMIT QUERIES TO ONE PER MEMBER PER YEAR. WE HAD HOPED TO USE THE BALANCE OF MULTIPLE QUERIES AS SUBMITTED BY SOME OF OUR MEMBERS, AS SPACE PERMITTED. HOWEVER, YOU WILL NOTE FROM THE NUMBER USED IN THIS ISSUE, THIS WAS NOT POSSIBLE.

QUERIES FOR 1988 WILL BE ACCEPTED, PREFERABLY WITH YOUR MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL FORM CONTAINED IN THIS ISSUE, AND WILL BE USED IN THE ORDER IN WHICH THEY ARE
